IBV CAPITAL GLOBAL VALUE CANADIAN FEEDER FUND LP

OFFERING OF LIMITED PARTNERSHIP INTERESTS

1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

IBV Capital Global Value Canadian Feeder Fund LP, an Ontario limited partnership (the “Partnership”) is offering for sale limited partnership units in the Partnership (the “Canadian Fund Units”). Unless otherwise indicated, the term “Canadian Fund Units” in this Canadian offering memorandum (“Offering Memorandum”) generally includes all classes, sub-classes, series or sub-series of Canadian Fund Units. The subscription price of each Canadian Fund Unit is equal to USD$100 per Canadian Fund Unit. The Investment Manager retains the discretion to change this policy. The minimum initial investment in the Partnership is (i) USD$25,000 for investors who qualify as accredited investors under the Securities Act (Ontario) and National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus Exemptions, or (ii) CAD$150,000 for investors who are not individuals and are not resident in Alberta, net of any sales commissions and other fees, payable in U.S. dollars (or such lesser amount as the Investment Manager may in its discretion accept).

The assets of the Partnership will be invested through a “master-feeder” fund structure in IBV Capital Global Value Fund LP, an open-ended exempted limited partnership established under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Master Fund”). Additional feeder funds may invest in the Master Fund in the future. References in this Offering Memorandum to the “Fund” means the Partnership, the Master Fund and each other Feeder Vehicle (defined below), collectively or any one of them, unless the context requires otherwise.

The investment manager of the Fund, including the Partnership, is IBV Capital Ltd., an Ontario corporation (the “Investment Manager”, “we”, “us” and “our”). The officers and directors of the Investment Manager are Jonathan Talbot Babineau (officer and director) and Krishan (Kris) Shah (director).

The Partnership’s administrator is Apex Fund Services (Canada) Ltd. (the “Administrator”).

Generally, each Feeder Vehicle (defined below), including the Partnership, will indirectly share the administrative and other expenses of the Master Fund, pro rata based on its interest in the Master Fund.

This Offering Memorandum sets forth the investment objective and method of operation of the Fund, certain material terms of the limited partnership agreement of the Partnership (the “Partnership Agreement”), the Partnership’s and the Master Fund’s agreements with service providers and certain other pertinent information. However, this Offering Memorandum is not a disclosure of all of the material provisions of such documents that may be significant to a particular prospective investor in the Partnership, and each prospective investor should examine this Offering Memorandum, the Partnership Agreement and the subscription agreement (the “Subscription Agreement”) accompanying this Offering Memorandum in order to assure itself that the Fund’s investment program is satisfactory to it. Prospective investors are further invited to review, at the Investment Manager’s offices during regular business hours, any non-proprietary materials available to the Partnership that relate to the Partnership and the Master Fund and their operations, and any other matters regarding this Offering Memorandum or the information contained herein.

If the description in or terms of this Offering Memorandum are inconsistent with or contrary to the Partnership Agreement or any other such agreement or document, the Partnership Agreement or such other agreement or document, as applicable, shall govern.

The following is a summary of the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, the Partnership Agreement, the Subscription Agreement and other agreements and documents relating to the Partnership and the Master Fund referred to in this Offering Memorandum, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of this Offering Memorandum, the Partnership Agreement and such other agreements and documents, copies of which will be made available upon request to the Investment Manager and should be reviewed prior to purchasing any Canadian Fund Units. The Partnership will afford prospective investors the opportunity to ask questions of and receive written answers from its representatives concerning the terms and conditions of the offering and to obtain any additional information to the extent that the Partnership possesses such information or can acquire it without unreasonable effort or expense.

All dollar figures herein are expressed in United States dollars, unless otherwise stated.

The Partnership

The Partnership was formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario and became a limited partnership by filing a Declaration of Limited Partnership under the Limited Partnerships Act (Ontario) (the “Partnership Act”) on January 9, 2014. The Partnership is governed by the Partnership Agreement dated as of January 9, 2014, as amended and restated as of May 1, 2015 and as may be further amended and restated from time to time. The principal place of business of the Partnership and of the general partner of the Partnership, IBV Capital Global Value Fund GP Inc., (the “General Partner”), is 180 Bloor Street West, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5S 2V6. The General Partner was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) on January 6, 2014.

Each purchaser of Canadian Fund Units will become a limited partner in the Partnership (each, a “Limited Partner” and together with the General Partner, the “Partners”). The Partnership will invest substantially all of its assets through a “master-feeder” fund structure and become a limited partner of IBV Capital Global Value Fund LP (the “Master Fund”), an open-ended Cayman Islands registered exempted limited partnership.

The Master Fund is a private fund with 15 or fewer investors, a majority of whom have the right to appoint or remove the general partner of the Master Fund, and as such, is not required to be registered as a regulated mutual fund with the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority (“CIMA”), pursuant to section 4(4) of the Mutual Funds Law (Revised) of the Cayman Islands (“Mutual Funds Law”).

Other investment vehicles may be formed in the future to invest in the Master Fund. The Partnership and each other investment vehicle formed in the future are sometimes referred to in this Offering Memorandum as a “Feeder Vehicle”.

Unless otherwise specifically stated herein, subscriptions, redemptions, calculation of Net Asset Value (defined below) and other corporate mechanics taking place at the Master Fund level will generally be effected in a substantially equivalent manner at the Partnership level (as more specifically set out in this Offering Memorandum and the Partnership Agreement), except that any fees or expenses charged at the Master Fund level will not also be charged at the Partnership level.

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide Limited Partners with consistent and attractive rates of return over a long-term time horizon and throughout various market environments. To accomplish this objective, the Investment Manager employs a variety of investment strategies in order to take advantage of profitable opportunities in capital markets. See Section 3 - Investment Program.

The investment objective of the Partnership is to provide Limited Partners with exposure to the portfolio of the Master Fund by investing all or substantially all of the Partnership’s assets in limited partnership interests of the Master Fund. As such, the investment strategies of the Master Fund are applicable to the Partnership to the extent the Partnership’s assets are invested in the Master Fund.

Investment Manager

The investment manager of the Partnership and the Master Fund is IBV Capital Ltd., a corporation organized under the laws of the Province of Ontario (the “Investment Manager”).

The Investment Manager is registered with the Ontario Securities Commission and the Autorité des Marchés Financiers as an investment fund manager, a portfolio manager and an exempt market dealer and with the Alberta Securities Commission as an exempt market dealer. The Investment Manager may, from time to time, hold other registrations required to comply with applicable securities laws.

The Offering

Canadian Fund Units are offered on a continuous basis only through registered dealers to experienced and sophisticated investors pursuant to available prospectus exemptions, and where applicable, registration exemptions in accordance with applicable securities legislation in all provinces and territories of Canada other than Newfoundland and Labrador (“Offering Jurisdictions”).

The Partnership may issue Canadian Fund Units to new Limited Partners and accept additional subscriptions by existing Limited Partners on the last Business Day (defined below) of each month, subject to the General Partner’s discretion at other times.

For purposes of this Offering Memorandum, a “Business Day” means any day on which banks are generally open for business in the City of Toronto, not being a Saturday or Sunday.

The Partnership may, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, issue an unlimited number of Canadian Fund Units in an unlimited number of classes (each, a “Class”), which may be divided into different series within each Class (each, a “Series”), with offering terms or in currencies that differ from the Canadian Fund Units initially being offered pursuant to this Offering Memorandum.

Canadian Fund Units are being offered to investors (a) who are accredited investors as defined in the Securities Act (Ontario) and National Instrument 45-106 - Prospectus and Registration Exemptions (“NI 45-106”), (b) who are not individuals and not resident in Alberta, who invest a minimum of CAD$150,000 in the Partnership, or (c) to whom Canadian Fund Units may otherwise be sold without a prospectus.

Price Per Unit; Minimum Initial Investment

Canadian Fund Units are offered at a price of USD$100 per Canadian Fund Unit. The Investment Manager retains the discretion to change this policy. The minimum initial investment in the Partnership is (i) USD$25,000 for investors who qualify as accredited investors under the Securities Act (Ontario) and National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus Exemptions, or (ii) CAD$150,000 for investors who are not individuals and are not resident in Alberta, net of any sales commissions and other fees, payable in U.S. dollars (or such lesser amount as the Investment Manager may in its discretion accept).

Additional Investments

Following the required initial minimum investment in the Partnership, Limited Partners may make additional investments of not less than USD$5,000 provided that, at the time of the subscription for additional Canadian Fund Units, the Limited Partner is an accredited investor as defined in the Securities Act (Ontario) and under NI 45-106 or another exemption is available. The Investment Manager may, in its sole discretion, from time to time permit additional investments of lesser amounts. These minimums are net of any front end commissions paid by an investor to his or her registered dealer. See Section 10 – “Dealer Compensation”.

Initial Classes of Canadian Fund Units

The Partnership is offering three classes of Canadian Fund Units pursuant to this Offering Memorandum: Class A Canadian Fund Units, Class F Canadian Fund Units and Class M Canadian Fund Units. A new Series of each Class will be issued on each date on which Canadian Fund Units are issued.

Class F Canadian Fund Units Class F Canadian Fund Units are available to (a) eligible subscribers who participate in fee-based programs through authorized registered dealers; (b) eligible subscribers in respect of whom the Partnership does not incur distribution costs; and (c) eligible individual subscribers in the Investment Manager’s sole discretion.

Class M Canadian Fund Units Class M Canadian Fund Units are available only to the shareholders, directors, officers and employees of the Investment Manager, their respective families and other subscribers at the sole discretion of the Investment Manager.

The registered office of the Master Fund is located at Conyers Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, Cricket Square, Hutchins Drive, PO Box 2681, Grand Cayman KY1-1111, Cayman Islands. The Master Fund is offering its interests to the Partnership pursuant to its limited partnership agreement, as amended, restated or supplemented from time to time. The General Partner acts as the general partner of the Master Fund pursuant to the Master Fund’s limited partnership agreement. The Investment Manager acts as the investment manager of the Master Fund pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement.

Master Fund Units

The proceeds of each Limited Partner’s subscription for Canadian Fund Units will be used by the Partnership to acquire units of limited partnership interests in the Master Fund (“Master Fund Units”). The Master Fund is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Master Fund Units in an unlimited number of classes, which may be divided into sub-classes and/or series, having such terms and conditions as the General Partner may determine.

Generally, each class and series of Master Fund Units shall correspond to a specific class and series of limited partnership interests of each Feeder Vehicle, including each Class and Series of Canadian Fund Units issued by the Partnership.

The Master Fund is a private fund with 15 or fewer investors, a majority of whom have the right to appoint or remove the General Partner of the Master Fund, and as such, is not required to be registered as a regulated mutual fund with CIMA pursuant to section 4(4) of the Mutual Funds Law. The Master Fund may need to register with CIMA in the future should it no longer qualify under Section 4(4) of the Mutual Funds Law. No Cayman Islands authority has commented upon the contents of this Offering Memorandum or the merits of an investment in the Master Fund. Moreover the investment activities of the Master Fund are not regulated or otherwise overseen by the Cayman Islands government.

Currently, the Master Fund has established the following classes of Master Fund Units:

Class A Master Fund Units The Class A Master Fund Units will correspond to Class A Canadian Fund Units.

Class F Master Fund Units The Class F Master Fund Units will correspond to Class F Canadian Fund Units.

Class PD1 Master Fund Units Offered only to the Incentive LP.¹

Class M Master Fund Units The Class M Master Fund Units will correspond to Class M Canadian Fund Units.

The Canadian Fund Units and Master Fund Units are denominated in U.S. dollars. The reporting currency of the Fund is U.S. dollars.

The General Partner may create and offer other classes of the Master Fund, which may be divided into sub-classes and/or series, with differing terms and conditions from time to time.

Management Fee

The Master Fund will pay the Investment Manager a monthly management fee (the “Management Fee”) equal to:

- (a) 1/12 of 1.75% of the Net Asset Value of the Class A Master Fund Units (determined in accordance with the partnership agreement of the Master Fund); and
 - (b) 1/12 of 0.75% the Net Asset Value of the Class F Master Fund Units (determined in accordance with the partnership agreement of the Master Fund);
- plus, in each case, any applicable federal and provincial taxes.

The Management Fee will be paid monthly in arrears, based on the value of the aggregate net asset value of each series of Master Fund Units (other than any Master Fund Units for which the Management Fee will not be charged) as of the last Business Day of each month. The Management Fee will be adjusted for subscriptions and redemptions occurring during the month.

The Investment Manager will receive the Management Fee from the Master Fund. No management fee will be paid at the Partnership level.

The Fund may create additional classes, subclasses and series that may have higher or lower Management Fees, Performance Allocations or other fees and features and such Classes, subclasses and series may be restricted to one or more investors or classes of investors by the agreement of the General Partner.

The Class M Master Fund Units and Class PD1 Master Fund Units are not subject to a Management Fee or a Performance Allocation (defined below).

Performance Allocation

At the end of each Performance Period (defined below) and on any date that a Limited Partner redeems Canadian Fund Units, the corresponding series of Class A Master Fund Units and Class F Master Fund Units are subject to a performance allocation (the “Performance Allocation”) equal to 20% of the amount, if any, by which the Performance Change (defined below) exceeds the High Water Mark (defined below), if applicable. The High Water Mark will reset on a maximum 24 month rolling basis.

The Performance Allocation is accrued monthly and is paid after the last Business Day of each Performance Period. Upon the redemption of Canadian Fund Units, the Performance Allocation applicable to the corresponding Master Fund units will be allocated to the redeemed units within 15 Business Days of the end of the month in which such units were redeemed.

The “High Water Mark” means in respect of a Master Fund Unit, as at any date, means the higher of:

- (a) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit on the date of issue of such Master Fund Unit, provided it occurred within the present or previous fiscal year, together with any Accumulated Hurdle;
- (b) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit of such Master Fund Unit on the last Business Day of the preceding Performance Period, together with any Accumulated Hurdle; and
- (c) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit of such Master Fund Unit on the last Business Day of the second preceding Performance Period, together with any Accumulated Hurdle.

The “Hurdle” is the trailing 12-month average yield of the one-year risk free rate, defined as the “Generic United States 1 Year Government Bond Yield” (Bloomberg Ticker Symbol: GB12) as reported on each Valuation Date.

Payment of the Performance Allocation will be as follows:

- (a) 50% of the total Performance Allocation shall be paid to the Incentive LP in cash after the end of the relevant Performance Period; and
- (b) 50% of the total Performance Allocation (the “Deferred Performance Allocation”) shall be allocated to a deferred performance account (the “Deferred Performance Account”) subject to a lock-up period (the “Lock-Up Period”) terminating on the calculation of the Performance Change for the subsequent Performance Period.

Performance Allocation Adjustment

At the end of each subsequent Performance Period, if there is a:

- (a) Positive Performance Change, then the Lock-Up Period will terminate and the Deferred Performance Allocation will be released to the Incentive LP (together with any income earned thereon); or
- (b) Negative Performance Change, then an amount from the Deferred Performance Allocation equal to the percentage obtained by dividing the Negative Performance Change by the previous Positive Performance Change will reduce the Deferred Performance Account (as will any income earned on the amount so deducted) and such amounts will be allocated to the series of Master Fund Units corresponding to the Canadian Fund Units held by Limited Partners in respect of whom the Deferred Performance Allocation was made. The maximum Negative Performance Change will be equal to the Deferred Performance Allocation together with any income earned thereon. If a Limited Partner redeems any Canadian Fund Units prior to the end of the subsequent Performance Period, the Deferred Performance Allocation allocated to such units will be forfeited and will be allocated to the Incentive LP within 15 Business Days of the end of the month in which the units were redeemed.

“Performance Period” for any Class and/or Series means, with respect to a Limited Partner, the period commencing on January 1 of each year and ending on December 31 of such year; provided, however, that if a Limited Partner subscribes for any Class and/or Series on a date other than January 1, then the first Performance Period with respect to such subscription shall be the period commencing on the date of such subscription and ending on December 31 of such year. If, prior to the end of a calendar year, such Limited Partner redeems all or a portion of its Canadian Fund Units in any Class and/or Series, or transfers any Class and/or Series to a substituted Limited Partner a person, or the final distribution to such Limited Partner is made following the termination of the Class and/or Series, then the last Performance Period with respect to such Limited Partner with respect to such Class (or, in the case of a partial withdrawal or transfer, the last Performance Period with respect to the amount withdrawn or transferred) shall end on the date of such withdrawal, substitution or final distribution.

“Performance Change” for a Performance Period with respect to any Series held by any Limited Partner means, the amount, expressed as a percentage, if any, by which (i) the Net Asset Value per Unit of the applicable Series as of the last day of such Performance Period (before giving effect to any Performance Allocation for such Performance Period) exceeds (ii) the Net Asset Value per Unit of the same Series as of the first day of such Performance Period (after giving effect to any Performance Allocation for the preceding Performance Period). If the amount specified in clause (i) exceeds the amount specified in clause (ii) for a Performance Period, such difference shall be a “Positive Performance Change” and if the amount specified in clause (ii) exceeds the amount specified in clause (i), such difference shall be a “Negative Performance Change”.

“Accumulated Hurdle” means the accumulated amount calculated and accrued on each Valuation Date equal to the product of (a) the Hurdle (prorated for the number of days in the year since the last Valuation Date); and (b) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit on the applicable Valuation Date.

By structuring the Performance Allocation as above, the Fund creates a unique relationship with its investors, in that the return earned by the Investment Manager and its affiliates becomes highly correlated with the investment success of the Limited Partners.

The Investment Manager may make such adjustments to the High Water Mark and Accumulated Hurdle of a Class and/or Series as are determined by the Investment Manager to be necessary to account for the payment of any distributions, splits or consolidation on or of Master Fund Units or any other event or matter that would, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, impact upon the computation of Performance Allocation. Any such determination of the Investment Manager shall, absent manifest error, be binding on all Limited Partners. See Section 7 - “Performance Allocation”.

Redemptions

An investment in the Fund is intended to be a long-term investment. However, holders of Class A Canadian Fund Units, Class F Canadian Fund Units and Class M Canadian Fund Units may request that such Canadian Fund Units be redeemed on the last Business Day in any fiscal quarter (a “Redemption Date”), upon not less than 60 days' prior written request to the General Partner. Any requests for redemption received after such time will be processed as of the next Redemption Date (defined below).

Redemption requests are irrevocable unless they are not honoured on the applicable Redemption Date, in which case they may be withdrawn within 15 days following such Redemption Date.

A redemption of Canadian Fund Units is generally effected by the Partnership redeeming the applicable number and corresponding class of Master Fund Units.

The General Partner, in its sole discretion, may permit redemptions of Canadian Fund Units at other times or otherwise modify or waive such redemption conditions and requirements for redemptions of any Limited Partner's Canadian Fund Units at any time.

The redemption proceeds for any redeemed Canadian Fund Units shall equal the Net Asset Value per Unit of the applicable Series of Canadian Fund Units being redeemed at the close of business on the relevant Redemption Date. Redemption proceeds for Canadian Fund Units will generally be paid within 10 Business Days of the Redemption Date.

If a Limited Partner requests a redemption of Canadian Fund Units that have not been held by such Limited Partner for at least 12 months, the General Partner may, in its sole discretion, withhold 3% from the aggregate Net Asset Value of the Canadian Fund Units being tendered for redemption (an “Early Redemption Fee”). The Early Redemption Fee will be retained by the Partnership. The General Partner has the sole discretion to waive or reduce the amount of the Early Redemption Fee.

If all of the Canadian Fund Units of a particular Class held by a Limited Partner are being redeemed, then, in such event, (i) the General Partner may hold back up to 5% of the aggregate redemption amount payable to such Limited Partner until the Master Fund has finalized its year-end audit for the period covering the applicable Redemption Date; (ii) payment of an amount equal to 95% of the total redemption payment due in respect of those redeemed Units shall be made within 15 Business Days of the Redemption Date, and (iii) the balance of the redemption proceeds shall be paid to the Limited Partner as soon as practicable following completion of the Master Fund’s audit for the fiscal year in which the Redemption Date occurs, and after giving effect to any year-end adjustments deemed necessary or appropriate by the General Partner, including the establishment of reserves that the Investment Manager deems necessary or appropriate to account for contingent or other liabilities of the Master Fund existing as of the Redemption Date.

If on any Redemption Date the assets of the Master Fund are invested in investments which the Master Fund is unable to realize, or if realized would be at a value determined by the General Partner to be a discount to their true value, or if the Master Fund is unable (or it is not practicable) to distribute any such investment for the redemption of the applicable Units, then, in the discretion of the General Partner, payment to the Limited Partner of the portion of the redemption proceeds relating to such investment may be delayed until such time as such investment may be realized or may be realized at a value which is not, in the determination of the General Partner, a discounted value, or the Master Fund is able to distribute such investment. In such event, the portion of the redemption proceeds otherwise due to the Limited Partner will be increased or decreased to reflect the performance of such investment through the date on which such investment is realized by the Master Fund or to reflect the increase or decrease in the value of the investment through the date on which it is distributed or otherwise disposed of by the Master Fund, net of any and all applicable fees or accrued fees payable by the Master Fund covering such period.

Redemption proceeds may be paid in cash or in kind or a combination thereof at the General Partner’s sole discretion.

If the Master Fund receives requests for redemptions for any Redemption Date that would result in redemption payments in an aggregate amount exceeding 25% of the Master Fund NAV as of such Redemption Date, the General Partner shall have the right to reduce the amount of redemption requests effected on such Redemption Date so that the aggregate redemption payments to be made do not exceed 25% of the Master Fund NAV. Any such reduction shall be made pro rata among all of the Limited Partners and securityholders of other Feeder Vehicles requesting withdrawals based on the amount of such Limited Partner’s investment in the Partnership on that Redemption Date. In such event, any Canadian Fund Units that are not redeemed on the requested date may not be redeemed unless and until, and only to the extent that, the applicable Limited Partner delivers a new redemption request for such Canadian Fund Units.

In the event that a Limited Partner has made a redemption request on the applicable Redemption Date for three consecutive calendar quarters and, following such redemption request such Limited Partner has not received the full value of its redemption request after the applicable Redemption Date of the third consecutive calendar quarter, the redemption request (or the remainder thereof in the case of a partial redemption) shall be distributed to such Limited Partner on the applicable Redemption Date of the fourth consecutive calendar quarter following the initial date of the redemption request.

Redemptions may be suspended or the date of payment of redemption proceeds may be postponed in such circumstances as the General Partner may reasonably determine. Examples of such circumstances include, without limitation, if the General Partner reasonably determines that: (i) the Master Fund's assets are invested in such a manner so as to not reasonably permit immediate liquidation of sufficient assets in a timely fashion to meet redemption requirements; (ii) there exists a state of affairs that constitutes circumstances under which liquidation by the Master Fund of part or all of its investments is not reasonable or practicable, or would be prejudicial to the Master Fund or Limited Partners generally, including if, in the General Partner's sole judgment, a material adverse change or disruption has occurred in the financial, banking or capital markets generally which has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Fund; (iii) not suspending redemptions would have an adverse effect on continuing Limited Partners; (iv) the General Partner is unable to value the assets of the Fund with reasonable reliability, (v) if any market or stock exchange on which a material part of the assets of the Master Fund are traded is closed (other than for ordinary holidays), or dealings thereon are restricted, suspended or experience a material interruption or disruption in ordinary trading; (vi) there is a disruption to the means of communications normally employed in determining the prices of a material part of the investments of the Master Fund; or (vii) where the satisfaction of redemption requests is prohibited by law. Redemptions may also be suspended upon an announcement by the General Partner that the Master Fund and/or Partnership will be terminated. In the event of a suspension or postponement of redemptions, the General Partner will give notice to Limited Partners of such suspension or postponement.

The General Partner has the right, in its sole discretion, to require a Limited Partner to redeem some or all of the Canadian Fund Units owned by such Limited Partner at any time upon notice to the Limited Partner. In addition, in certain circumstances, including if a Limited Partner ceases to be a Canadian resident, he or she will be deemed to have redeemed his or her Canadian Fund Units as of the Valuation Date immediately prior to the change in such Limited Partner's status. See Section 5 under the subheading "Eligible Investors"

Expenses

The Partnership, and each other Feeder Vehicle, will indirectly bear its own expenses and a pro rata portion (based on their respective investments in the Master Fund) of all costs and expenses of the Master Fund, including: (i) legal, compliance, administrator, audit and accounting expenses (including third party accounting services), including the Partnership's costs of preparation of reports to Limited Partners; (ii) expenses (including legal, accounting, filing, printing and related expenses) incurred in connection with the organization and funding of the Partnership and the Master Fund and the establishment of the General Partner, as determined in good faith by the General Partner ("Organizational Expenses"); (iii) shareholder proxy voting services; (iv) ongoing administrative expenses of the Master Fund and the General Partner; (iv) insurance costs (including D&O and E&O insurance for the Investment Manager and General Partner, but not including financial institution bond coverage); (v) investment expenses and fees related to acquiring, holding, monitoring and disposing of the Master Fund's investments, including all direct trading expenses, brokerage commissions and service fees and clearing and settlement charges; (vii) interest on margin accounts and other indebtedness; (viii)

borrowing charges on securities sold short; (ix) custodial and bank service fees; (x) regulatory, compliance or filing expenses; (xi) legal fees and expenses, including fees and expenses incurred in connection with negotiating and entering into contracts, in connection with any action or proceeding or preparing any reports or documents required to be filed pursuant to applicable laws or regulations; (xii) costs and expenses incurred in connection with the offering, marketing and sale of interests in the Partnership; (xiii) indemnification or extraordinary costs or expenses or liabilities relating to the affairs of the Partnership and the Master Fund; (xiv) all costs and expenses of liquidating the Partnership and Master Fund; (xv) any taxes, fees or other governmental charges levied against the Partnership and Master Fund and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with any tax audit, investigation, settlement or review of the Partnership and Master Fund; (xvi) any other expenses related to the purchase, sale or transmittal of the Partnership and Master Fund's assets, and (xvii) expenses related to the Incentive LP's Deferred Performance Account (as defined in Section 7 – "Performance Allocation"). To the extent that expenses will be paid directly by the Master Fund, such liabilities will be included in the Master Fund NAV. The Investment Manager and the General Partner may from time to time, in each of their sole discretion, waive or reimburse the Partnership or Master Fund, as the case may be, for some of their expenses, including Organizational Expenses.

The Master Fund will bear all of the fees and expenses relating to the organization of the Master Fund, the Partnership and the offering of Canadian Fund Units. In determining the Master Fund NAV for purposes of subscriptions and redemptions, the Master Fund will amortize the Organizational Expenses over a 60-month period. For financial reporting purposes, International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") require that organizational costs be treated as an expense when incurred. The financial statements of the Partnership and Master Fund will include a comparison of the Net Asset Value per Unit for financial reporting purposes to the Net Asset Value per Unit used for all other purposes, including the processing of subscriptions and redemptions.

The Management Fee will not be charged at the Partnership level, but will instead be charged at the Master Fund Level. See "Management Fee" above.

The Investment Manager will render its services to the Partnership and the Master Fund at its own expense and will be responsible for its overhead expenses including: office rent; utilities; furniture and fixtures; stationery; secretarial/internal administrative services; salaries; employee insurance and payroll taxes.

Sales Commission

No sales commission is payable to the Investment Manager in respect of Canadian Fund Units purchased directly by a subscriber. Registered dealers through whom a subscriber purchases Canadian Fund Units may charge a negotiated sales commission of up to 5%. Any such sales commission will be negotiated between the registered dealer and the subscriber and will be payable directly by the subscriber to the dealer. Investments in the Partnership, including any required minimum investments, are net of such commissions. See Section 10 - "Dealer Compensation".

Servicing Commission

From the Management Fee received by the Investment Manager in respect of Class A Canadian Fund Units, the Investment Manager may pay a monthly servicing commission (the "Servicing Commission") to registered dealers whose clients hold Class A Canadian Fund Units. The rate of Servicing Commission will be negotiated between the Investment Manager and registered dealers. The payments are calculated as at the last Valuation Date of each month and paid monthly in arrears by the Investment Manager.

The Investment Manager may pay additional compensation from its own account to registered dealers, individuals and entities who refer investors to the Fund on a case-by-case basis. Any such arrangements will be made in accordance with applicable legislation.

Such payments may be modified or discontinued by the Investment Manager at any time. See 10 - “Dealer Compensation”.

Determination of Net Asset Value

The “Net Asset Value” of the Partnership and of the Master Fund as of any date will equal the difference between the Partnership’s or the Master Fund’s total assets and its liabilities, respectively.

Any reference to Net Asset Value as of any date with respect to the Canadian Fund Units or any particular Class or Series of Canadian Fund Units or Master Fund Units or any particular class or series of Master Fund Units is equal to the difference between the total assets and total liabilities attributable to such units.

The Net Asset Value of the Partnership, and the Net Asset Value per Unit of each Class and Series of Canadian Fund Units, will be calculated at the close of business on the last Business Day of each month and such other days as the Investment Manager may in its discretion designate (each, a “Valuation Date”).

Because the Master Fund Units and Canadian Fund Units of each Series are issued at different dates, the Net Asset Value per Unit of each Series of Canadian Fund Units will differ.

Restrictions on Transfer, Assignment and Pledges

Canadian Fund Units are not transferrable or assignable, and may not be pledged, by Limited Partners without the General Partner’s prior consent, which may be granted or withheld in the General Partner’s sole and absolute discretion. Any purported transfer, assignment or pledge of Canadian Fund Units not made with the General Partner’s consent shall be null and void and of no force or effect whatsoever.

In the event of the death, disability, incapacity, adjudication of incompetency, termination, bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution of a Limited Partner, the executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other personal representative of that Limited Partner shall be deemed to be the assignee of the Limited Partner’s Canadian Fund Units but shall not be admitted as a Limited Partner without the consent of the General Partner, in its sole discretion.

Financial Reporting

Subject to standing instructions from the Limited Partner, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year (or such other period as required by applicable law), the General Partner will forward to each Limited Partner an annual report for such fiscal year consisting of (i) audited financial statements for such fiscal year; (ii) a report of the auditor on such financial statements; (iii) a report on allocations of taxable income or loss and distributions of cash to the General Partner and the Limited Partners for such fiscal period; and (iv) tax information to enable each Limited Partner to properly complete and file his or her tax returns in Canada in relation to his or her Canadian Fund Units.

Subject to standing instructions from the Limited Partner, The General Partner will forward to each Limited Partner unaudited semi-annual financial information concerning the Partnership within sixty (60) days of the end of the relevant interim financial period. Information respecting the Net Asset Value per Unit will be provided on a quarterly basis and on a more frequent basis at the discretion of the Investment Manager.

Financial reports of the Partnership will be prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for publicly accountable entities, which incorporates IFRS.

Risk Factors

An investment in the Partnership involves significant risks and is suitable only for those persons who can bear the economic risk of the loss of their entire investment and who have limited need for liquidity in their investment. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. An investment in the Partnership carries with it the inherent risks associated with investments in equities, equity-related securities, debt and debt-related securities and the use of leverage and short sales. See Section 15 - “Risk Factors”. Each prospective Limited Partner should carefully review this Offering Memorandum, the Partnership Agreement and the other agreements and documents referred to herein before deciding to invest in the Partnership.

Tax Matters

See Section 10 - “Certain Tax Considerations”.

Prospective Limited Partners should consult with their own tax advisors with specific reference to their own situation as it relates to an investment in the Partnership.

Release of Confidential
Information

Under applicable securities and anti-money laundering legislation, the Investment Manager is required to collect and may voluntarily release confidential information about Limited Partners and, if applicable, about the beneficial owners of corporate Limited Partners, to regulatory or law enforcement authorities.

3. INVESTMENT PROGRAM

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide Limited Partners with consistent and attractive rates of return over a long-term time horizon and throughout various market environments. As the Investment Manager, we will seek to accomplish this by investing (on the long and occasionally short sides) in equity, fixed income, and related instruments. Our primary geographic focus will be developed markets and to a lesser extent developing markets. In order to achieve our objective, we intend to employ a variety of investment strategies to take advantage of profitable opportunities in capital markets as discussed below.

The Partnership itself will pursue its investment objective through its investment in the Master Fund. The Fund's investment strategy and portfolio will generally be conducted through, and held by, the Master Fund.

Investment Philosophy

The "IBV" in IBV Capital Ltd. stands for Investment By Value. Consistent with our name, we take a fundamental value driven approach to investing. There are many factors involved in making consistently successful investments. These factors are sometimes clearly visible and significant in nature. Other times, they are hidden and very nuanced. We believe the key factor to successful long-term investing is both understanding and carefully managing the risk-return relationship. This is because we think there is a strong causal relationship between risk and returns. To manage the risk-return relationship, one must clearly define risk and understand its potential effects on return. We define risk as the probability of a permanent loss of capital. As a consequence, we concentrate our efforts on producing attractive returns in absolute terms.

At times, we believe the market is inefficient. This is often a result of psychological excesses and investor constraints. When the markets become inefficient, securities become mispriced. This mispricing can occur in the market at large or in specific geographic regions, industries, or sectors but we find it to be more identifiable at the individual security level. This mispricing phenomenon can create attractive investment environments if one is patient when deploying capital. We are very patient and this patience allows us to take advantage of investment opportunities presented by an inefficient market.

To uncover investment opportunities that exhibit attractive return and risk characteristics, we continuously conduct research across a broad array of markets, geographies, industries, sectors, and securities. Once we have found a potential opportunity that we believe exhibits attractive qualities, we conduct a more detailed assessment of the investment opportunity's attributes. Our research focuses on factors that have shown to be effective at differentiating between strong and weak performing investments. These factors include a company's business model and resulting economics, its financial performance and the factors contributing to such performance and the company's anticipated growth prospects. We also assess the dynamics and outlook of the industry in which a company participates. All the while, we consider the existing economic and investing climate in conjunction with conducting this company specific research.

Once a detailed analysis of the company (or financial instrument) and its operating environment has been completed, we develop a conservative assessment of its intrinsic value. Intrinsic value, in general terms, is the actual perceived value of a security or company based only on an investor's assessment of its underlying fundamentals. Intrinsic value may or may not be the same as its current market value. This is because market values are often determined by a combination of factors beyond the underlying fundamentals, including fear, greed, and market participant constraints.

Our interest lies in issuers (or financial instruments) that have a market value below (and hopefully well below) their intrinsic value. We are especially interested when a catalyst exists that will help a market value converge with the intrinsic value. When this particular scenario exists, and we are comfortable with the purchase price, we will make an investment.

We place an emphasis on mitigating risk and believe this function is the cornerstone of our investment philosophy. We believe making investments when the market value of an issuer or financial instrument is well below its intrinsic value is a key factor in accomplishing this objective. By purchasing securities that we perceive to be priced below their intrinsic values, we believe we can simultaneously earn attractive returns and prudently manage risk. As we see it, the larger the variance between the intrinsic value and the market price, the lower the relative risk of loss. A larger variance also produces greater returns when and if the intrinsic value and market price eventually converge. In other words, we do not subscribe to the belief that one must always take more risk to earn an attractive return.

We have a long investment horizon. This gives the company (or financial instrument) we select time for its intrinsic value to be reflected in its market value. It also reduces the amount of portfolio turnover. However, because significant movements in market prices and the accumulation of income can occur over a short, intermediate, or long-term time horizon, we cannot predetermine the length of most investments.

Investment Strategy

The Investment Manager seeks to accomplish the Fund's investment objective primarily by employing the following strategies:

Investing Long in Securities

Taking a long position involves buying securities in anticipation of significant price appreciation and participation in the securities' income streams. We will make long investments in securities of issuers identified as attractive investment candidates by our investment process. The long investments will include securities of issuers that:

- Have a sound business model
- Enjoy strong economic fundamentals
- Have a history of allocating capital prudently
- Have a conservative capital structure
- Possess a deep management team with unquestionable integrity

Short Selling Securities

Short sales involve selling a security that the Master Fund does not own in anticipation of a price decline. A short sale occurs when the Master Fund borrows a security from a third party. In a short sale, the Master Fund must repurchase the security at a later date in order to replace the security that was borrowed from the third party. This is known as covering the short position. If the price of the borrowed security has fallen, the security will be repurchased at a lower price than that at which it was initially sold, and the difference between the price the Master Fund paid to repurchase the borrowed security to cover the short position and the price at which the security was sold to the second party (plus any interest rebate on the proceeds from the original short sale, less commission costs, dividends and other transaction expenses) will represent the our profits. If the Master Fund repurchases the borrowed security at a higher price than that at which it was initially sold, the Master Fund will incur a loss.

The Master Fund will engage in short selling of securities of issuers identified as unattractive investments and/or to hedge the market exposure of the Master Fund's long positions. We believe opportunities exist in short selling for reasons that are similar to why opportunities exist in long investments. Occasionally, investors' over-exuberance for an issuer's securities or particular markets or sectors as a result of attractive prospects or external market factors creates a significant imbalance in the risk-reward profile of a security that ultimately becomes unsustainable. This exuberance can be exacerbated by the external and internal limitations imposed on certain institutional investors, who control the majority of funds available for equity investments. Such institutional investors may be legally precluded or may be unwilling to sell securities short. This creates a fundamental imbalance between the buy and the sell side of the market.

Theoretically, the price of a security can increase indefinitely. Conversely, the price of a security can only fall to zero. Therefore, on short positions, the Master Fund can incur unlimited losses whereas our gains are limited. This does not appear to be a fair trade-off and from our perspective makes short selling extremely risky. We believe the easiest way to mitigate risk is to limit our use of risky strategies and practices. Therefore, to mitigate the risks associated with short selling, the Master Fund will use the strategy sparingly. Only in select circumstances, when we believe the risk-return profile is overwhelmingly in our favor, will the Master Fund engage in selling short a security. Some of the circumstances that must exist to persuade us to short sell are when an issuer is exhibiting extreme management, financial and operating deficiencies or issuers that are absurdly overvalued in the marketplace.

Pair Trading

Pair trading involves taking short positions from time to time in securities of one issuer while taking a long position in securities of another issuer, in an attempt to gain from the relative valuation differences between the two issuers. A pairs trade will be made when we feel the long position will appreciate in value when compared to the short position.

Private Placements and IPOs

The Master Fund may participate in initial public offerings, secondary offerings and private financings (including special warrant financings).

Derivatives

The Master Fund may use derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes. As a hedging strategy, derivatives may be used to reduce or hedge against various risks, including currency exchange risk associated with the Master Fund's foreign investments. As a non-hedging strategy, derivatives may be used to obtain investment exposures to certain issuers, markets and industries. The Master Fund may use, but are not limited to, the following derivatives: clearing corporation and over-the-counter (OTC) options, swaps, futures and forwards.

Portfolio Management

We believe good investments are rare and great investments are rarer still. Conversely, bad investments are often available and easy to participate in. We will construct the Master Fund's portfolio by only systematically adding securities that exhibit the qualities we seek. Since we only seek great investments and they infrequently arise, it benefits our investors to allocate their capital to those select opportunities when they do become available.

The types and asset classes that represent great investment opportunities to us change over time. At one point in time, fixed income and their related products may exhibit the characteristics we seek. At other times, equities provide the more attractive opportunities. We believe that to earn attractive returns without taking the commensurate risk, energy and capital should be focused on the opportunity set that exists. This may result in the Master Fund's portfolio becoming concentrated around certain issuers, industries or markets.

The foregoing describes our approach to portfolio composition when we perceive there to be investment opportunities in the market. If the quality of the investments we seek is not available, we will increase the Master Fund's cash position and wait for investment opportunities we believe to be attractive. We believe this is the more risk adverse approach to investing. Fortunately, this approach can provide the Master Fund with available cash to deploy when the circumstances change and the opportunities we seek become available.

Leverage

Leverage does not contribute to returns. It simply magnifies the rate of return. Leverage also magnifies losses and increases costs. Consequently, the use of leverage carries considerable risk. Consistent with our investment philosophy, we prefer to mitigate the Master Fund's risks. However, since short selling (described above) is in itself a form of borrowing, we do feel the need to have some flexibility. Therefore, the Master Fund is authorized to borrow in order to increase its investment leverage, but will restrict leverage to a ratio of 1.5:1 of its total assets.

The Master Fund does not intend to borrow as a key component of its investment strategy or to accomplish its investment objectives. On average, over time, we expect the Master Fund's will utilize a minimal amount of leverage, if any, at the time of investment. On a position-by-position basis, the Master Fund will adhere to applicable margin requirements.

Risk Management

We define risk as the probability of a permanent loss of capital. We manage risks using qualitative and quantitative risk assessment techniques to systematically identify the Master Fund's risks and to assess the probability they will lead to a permanent loss of capital.

First, we assess the risks embedded in a single security. In broad terms we evaluate risk factors that include: liquidity, size, sector exposure, industry exposure, position size, and importantly issuer specific factors such as operational and financial risks. We then compare the Master Fund's exposures in one security with all other securities in the portfolio. We then look for overlapping exposures that may be increasing the risks of the entire portfolio. In the event we find a risk exposure that has a probability of causing a permanent loss in capital, and that probability is higher than we are comfortable with, we will either hedge the exposure or eliminate it altogether. Specifically, we can mitigate unwanted risk exposures utilizing a variety of techniques, including reducing investment positions, entering pair trades, utilizing derivatives, and/or selling the position.

We believe an effective risk mitigation technique is our patience for allocating capital only when we believe the risk-reward profile is overwhelmingly in our favor. The risk-reward profile we patiently seek often appears in securities that have a market price that is far below their intrinsic value and exhibit the sound investment characteristics we have discussed.

While we typically will try to mitigate risk in selecting investments, the risk management techniques used by us cannot provide any assurance that the Master Fund will not be exposed to risks of significant investment losses. See Section 15 - "Risk Factors."

Readers are cautioned that the foregoing is not intended to be an exhaustive description of the Master Fund's investment strategies nor a complete list of all investment strategies that may be employed. At various times, the Master Fund may employ some, all or variations of the investment strategies discussed above as well as others, some of which may involve higher levels of risk. There are risks associated with each strategy and there is no assurance that any of the Master Fund's strategies will be profitable. See Section 15 - "Risk Factors".

Investment Restrictions

The investment activities of the Master Fund will be conducted in accordance with certain restrictions, which include the following:

Sole Undertaking

The Master Fund will not engage in any undertaking other than the investment of the Master Fund's assets in accordance with the Master Fund's investment objective and investment strategies.

Interest of the Investment Manager

The Master Fund will not purchase portfolio securities from, or sell portfolio securities to, the Investment Manager or any of its affiliates or any individual who is a partner, director or officer of any of them, any employee of the Investment Manager or any portfolio managed by the Investment Manager.

Commodities

Unless the Investment Manager obtains the appropriate registration under applicable securities laws, the Master Fund may not purchase any physical commodity.

Qualified Investments

The Master Fund will restrict its investments to "qualified investments" as defined under section 115.2 of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

4. BACKGROUND AND BIOGRAPHIES OF THE INVESTMENT MANAGER

In December 2010, Kris Shah and Frank Baylis, original principals of Baylis Medical Company Inc., a leading privately-held medical device manufacturer, engaged Jonathan Talbot Babineau to manage their respective families' investible assets. Both families shared the same investment objective to produce consistent and attractive long-term rates of return in all market environments. They also shared the same aversion to risk. Mr. Babineau long subscribed to an investment philosophy that is consistent with the families' objectives. Since January 2011, Mr. Babineau has managed the families' portfolios consistent with his investment principles, which constitute the Investment Manager's investment philosophy as described above.

In 2013, Messrs. Shah, Baylis and Babineau concluded that other investors must be looking to achieve similar investment objectives. Moreover, Mr. Babineau's investment philosophy, which is well grounded in simple business fundamentals, had proved successful for the Shah and Baylis families. Taking this all into consideration, Messrs. Shah, Baylis and Babineau felt compelled to form the Investment Manager and launch the Fund.

IBV Capital Ltd. is a boutique investment management firm that provides portfolio management services to high net worth individuals and institutional clients.

5. OFFERING OF CANADIAN FUND UNITS

Canadian Fund Units are offered on a continuous basis only through registered dealers to experienced and sophisticated investors pursuant to available prospectus exemptions, and where applicable, registration exemptions in accordance with applicable securities legislation in all provinces and territories of Canada other than Newfoundland and Labrador ("Offering Jurisdictions").

To date the Investment Manager has designated the following three Classes of Canadian Fund Units:

- Class A Canadian Fund Units are available to all eligible subscribers resident in the Offering Jurisdictions who meet the minimum investment criteria.
- Class F Canadian Fund Units are available to (a) eligible subscribers who participate in fee-based programs through authorized registered dealers; (b) eligible subscribers in respect of whom the Partnership does not incur distribution costs; and (c) eligible individual subscribers in the Investment Manager's sole discretion.
- Class M Canadian Fund Units are available only to the shareholders, directors, officers and employees of the Investment Manager, their respective families and other subscribers at the sole discretion of the Investment Manager.

A new Series of Canadian Fund Units within each Class will generally be issued each month in which a subscription takes place.

Additional Classes of Canadian Fund Units may be offered in the future without notice to, or approval of, existing Limited Partners and each Class may be subject to different fees.

This offering is not subject to any minimum aggregate subscription level, and therefore any funds invested are available to the Fund and need not be refunded to the subscriber.

The Investment Manager reserves the right in its sole discretion, to accept or reject orders, to change the minimum amount for investments in any Class of Canadian Fund Units, and to discontinue or suspend the offering as a whole, or of any Class.

There are certain timing and processing rules applicable to subscriptions and redemptions. See 19 - "Procedures to Purchase Canadian Fund Units" and Section 8 - "Summary of the Limited Partnership Agreement - Redemption of Canadian Fund Units".

Prospectus Exemptions

Units are being sold under available exemptions from applicable Canadian prospectus requirements, only to investors (a) who are accredited investors under the Securities Act (Ontario) and NI 45-106; (b) who invest a minimum of CAD$150,000 in the Partnership, and are not individuals and are not resident in Alberta, or (c) to whom Canadian Fund Units may otherwise be sold without a prospectus.

Purchasers will be required to make certain representations in the Subscription Agreement and the Investment Manager will rely on such representations to establish the availability of the applicable prospectus exemptions described above. Investors, other than individuals, that are not accredited investors, or are accredited investors solely on the basis that they have net assets of at least CAD$5,000,000, must also represent to the Investment Manager (and may be required to provide additional evidence at the request of the Investment Manager to establish) that such investor was not formed solely in order to make private placement investments which may not have otherwise been available to any persons holding an interest in such investor. The so-called "Offering Memorandum Exemption" is not being relied upon and investors do not have the benefit of certain additional protections that applicable securities laws give to investors of an issuer that relies on the Offering Memorandum Exemption.

Accredited Investors

A list of the qualifying criteria for accredited investors is set out in the Subscription Agreement delivered with this Offering Memorandum, but generally includes individuals who have net investment assets of at least CAD$1,000,000, or personal income of at least CAD$200,000 or combined spousal income of at least CAD$300,000 (in the previous two years with reasonable prospects of same in the current year). A registered adviser, including the Investment Manager, acting on behalf of a fully managed (discretionary) account also qualifies as an accredited investor.

Eligible Investors

Canadian Fund Units will not be offered to nor will subscriptions for Canadian Fund Units be accepted from: (a) persons who are "non-Canadians" within the meaning of the Investment Canada Act (Canada); (b) "non-residents", partnerships other than "Canadian partnerships", "tax shelters", "tax shelter investments", or any entities an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment", or in which a "tax shelter investment" has an interest, within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act"); (c) "financial institutions" within the meaning of section 142.2 of the Tax Act; or (d) a partnership which does not contain a prohibition against investment by persons or entities referred to in the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b) and (c).

In the event (a "Non-Status Event") that any Limited Partner subsequently becomes a "non-Canadian", a "non-resident" of Canada, a "tax shelter", a "tax shelter investment", a person or an entity an investment in which would be a "tax shelter investment", a "financial institution" or a partnership with any of the foregoing as a member or the Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership subsequently becomes a "tax shelter investment", such Limited Partner is required to immediately notify the Investment Manager in writing of such change in status and such Limited Partner's Units will be removed from the Partnership and the Canadian Fund Units held by such Limited Partner will be deemed to have been redeemed on the Valuation Date that immediately preceded the occurrence of such Non-Status Event.

Subscription Price

Canadian Fund Units are offered at a price of USD$100 per Canadian Fund Unit. The Investment Manager retains the discretion to change this policy.

The number of Canadian Fund Units issued to a Limited Partner upon acceptance of its subscription shall be equal to (x) the aggregate amount of the Limited Partner's subscription, (y) divided by USD$100.

Investors interested in subscribing for Canadian Fund Units should follow the procedures set forth in Section 19 - "Procedures to Purchase Canadian Fund Units".

Minimum Initial Subscriptions

The minimum initial investment in the Partnership is (i) USD$25,000 for investors who qualify as accredited investors under the Securities Act (Ontario) and National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus Exemptions, or (ii) CAD$150,000 for investors who are not individuals and are not resident in Alberta, net of any sales commissions and other fees, payable in U.S. dollars (or such lesser amount as the Investment Manager may in its discretion accept).

Additional Investments

Following the required initial minimum investment in the Partnership, Limited Partners may make additional investments of not less than USD$5,000 provided that, at the time of the subscription for additional Canadian Fund Units, the Limited Partner is an accredited investor as defined in the Securities Act (Ontario) and NI 45-106 or another exemption is available. The Investment Manager may, in its sole discretion, from time to time permit additional investments of lesser amounts. These minimums are net of any front end commissions paid by an investor to his or her registered dealer.

Series Roll-Up

On each Valuation Date on which Canadian Fund Units are issued, a new Series of Canadian Fund Units will be issued at a Net Asset Value per Unit of USD$100. All changes in Net Asset Value (i.e. all income and expenses, and all unrealized gains and losses) of the Partnership shall be borne proportionately by each Class and Series based on their respective Net Asset Values, except as follows: (i) subscription proceeds received by the Partnership in respect of a Series of Canadian Fund Units shall accrue to the Net Asset Value of such Series; and (ii) all redemption proceeds paid out by the Partnership in respect of a Canadian Fund Unit of a Series shall be deducted from the Net Asset Value of such Series, fees payable to the Investment Manager and all other fees and expenses incurred in respect of a Canadian Fund Unit of a Series shall be deducted from the Net Asset Value of such Series. The Net Asset Value per Unit of a Series shall be calculated by dividing the Net Asset Value of such Series by the number of Canadian Fund Units of such Series then outstanding.

At the end of each year, and following the payment of all fees and expenses of the Partnership, the Investment Manager may determine that some or all Series of the same Class will be re-designated in order to reduce the number of outstanding Series of each Class. This will be accomplished by amending the Net Asset Value per Unit of all such Series so that they are the same, and consolidating or subdividing the number of Canadian Fund Units of each such Series so the aggregate Net Asset Value of Canadian Fund Units held by a Limited Partner does not change. Limited Partners' rights will not be affected in any way as a result of this process.

6. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

Under an investment management agreement by and among the Investment Manager, the General Partner, the Master Fund and the Partnership (the "Investment Management Agreement"), the Investment Manager will invest and reinvest the assets of the Fund in accordance with the investment objective and policies of the Fund described in Section 3 - "Investment Program".

Management Fee

Under the terms of the Investment Management Agreement, the Master Fund will pay to the Investment Manager, for its services as investment manager to the Partnership and the Master Fund, a monthly management fee (the "Management Fee") equal to:

- (a) 1/12 of 1.75% of the Net Asset Value of the Class A Master Fund Units (determined in accordance with the Partnership Agreement); and
- (b) 1/12 of 0.75% of the Net Asset Value of the Class F Master Fund Units (determined in accordance with the Partnership Agreement); plus any applicable federal and provincial taxes.

The Management Fee will be paid monthly in arrears, based on the value of the aggregate Net Asset Value of each series of Master Fund Units (other than any Master Fund Units for which the Management Fee will not be charged) as of the last Business Day of each month. The Management Fee will be adjusted for subscriptions and redemptions occurring during the month.

The Investment Manager will receive the Management Fee from the Master Fund. No management fee will be paid at the Partnership level or from other Feeder Vehicles. The Class M Master Fund Units and Class PD1 Master Fund Units are not subject to a Management Fee or a Performance Allocation.

Other Provisions of the Investment Management Agreement

The Investment Management Agreement provides that it will continue indefinitely, except (i) the Investment Management Agreement will automatically terminate upon liquidation of the Investment Manager, the Partnership or the Master Fund (only with respect to such liquidated entity); (ii) either the Partnership, the Master Fund or the Investment Manager may terminate the Investment Management Agreement by giving all the other parties thereto not less than 60 days' prior written notice; (iii) the Investment Management Agreement may be terminated by a party to the Investment Management Agreement if any other party is in material breach of the terms of the Investment Management Agreement and such breach is not remedied within 15 days of notice of said breach; (iv) the Investment Management Agreement will automatically terminate when both the Partnership Agreement and the limited partnership agreement of the Master Fund are terminated.

In the event that the Investment Manager terminates the Investment Management Agreement pursuant to clause (ii) above, the Investment Manager must appoint a successor, which appointment must be approved by a majority of the Limited Partners unless the successor is an affiliate of the Investment Manager. If no successor is appointed or if the Limited Partners fail to approve a successor, the Fund shall be terminated.

The Investment Manager may not assign the Investment Management Agreement without the prior written consent of the General Partner on behalf of the Partnership and the Master Fund.

Under the Investment Management Agreement, the Partnership, the Master Fund and each other Feeder Vehicle will, to the fullest extent legally permissible under all applicable laws indemnify and hold harmless the Investment Manager and its members, partners, shareholders, officers, employees, agents and affiliates (hereinafter referred to as the "Affiliated Parties"), against any loss, liability or expense (including, without limitation, losses due to trade errors caused by such persons), judgments, fines, amounts paid or to be paid in settlements and reasonable attorney's fees and expenses incurred or suffered by an Affiliated Party in connection with the good faith performance of his, her or its responsibilities to the Fund; provided, however, that an Affiliated Party will not be indemnified for losses resulting from his, her or its gross negligence, wilful misconduct or dishonesty. An Affiliated Party will, subject to the requirement to provide certain representations regarding acting in good faith and repayment, and to the extent legally permissible, be advanced amounts in connection with the Fund's indemnification obligation; provided, however, that if it is later determined that such party was not entitled to indemnification, then such party will promptly reimburse the Fund for all advanced amounts.

7. PERFORMANCE ALLOCATION

At the end of each Performance Period (defined below) and on any date that a Limited Partner redeems Canadian Fund Units, the corresponding series of Class A Master Fund Units and Class F Master Fund Units are subject to a performance allocation (the "Performance Allocation") equal to 20% of the amount, if any, by which the Performance Change (defined below) exceeds the High Water Mark (defined below), if applicable. The High Water Mark will reset on a maximum 24 month rolling basis.

The Performance Allocation is accrued monthly and is paid after the last Business Day of each Performance Period. Upon the redemption of Canadian Fund Units, the Performance Allocation applicable to the corresponding Master Fund units will be allocated to the redeemed units within 15 Business Days of the end of the month in which such units were redeemed.

The "High Water Mark" means in respect of a Master Fund Unit, as at any date, means the higher of:

- (a) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit on the date of issue of such Master Fund Unit, provided it occurred within the present or previous fiscal year, together with any Accumulated Hurdle;

- (b) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit of such Master Fund Unit on the last Business Day of the preceding Performance Period, together with any Accumulated Hurdle; and
- (c) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit of such Master Fund Unit on the last Business Day of the second preceding Performance Period, together with any Accumulated Hurdle.

The “Hurdle” is the trailing 12-month average yield of the one-year risk free rate, defined as the “Generic United States 1 Year Government Bond Yield” (Bloomberg Ticker Symbol: GB12) as reported on each Valuation Date.

Payment of the Performance Allocation will be as follows:

- (a) 50% of the total Performance Allocation shall be paid to the Incentive LP in cash after the end of the relevant Performance Period; and
- (b) 50% of the total Performance Allocation (the “Deferred Performance Allocation”) shall be allocated to a deferred performance account (the “Deferred Performance Account”) subject to a lock-up period (the “Lock-Up Period”) terminating on the calculation of the Performance Change for the subsequent Performance Period.

Performance Allocation Adjustment

At the end of each subsequent Performance Period, if there is a:

- (a) Positive Performance Change, then the Lock-Up Period will terminate and the Deferred Performance Allocation will be released to the Incentive LP (together with any income earned thereon); or
- (b) Negative Performance Change, then an amount from the Deferred Performance Allocation equal to the percentage obtained by dividing the Negative Performance Change by the previous Positive Performance Change will reduce the Deferred Performance Account (as will any income earned on the amount so deducted) and such amounts will be allocated to the series of Master Fund Units corresponding to the Canadian Fund Units held by Limited Partners in respect of whom the Deferred Performance Allocation was made. The maximum Negative Performance Change will be equal to the Deferred Performance Allocation together with any income earned thereon. If a Limited Partner redeems any Canadian Fund Units prior to the end of the subsequent Performance Period, the Deferred Performance Allocation allocated to such units will be forfeited and will be allocated to the Incentive LP within 15 Business Days of the end of the month in which the units were redeemed.

“Performance Period” for any Class and/or Series means, with respect to a Limited Partner, the period commencing on January 1 of each year and ending on December 31 of such year; provided, however, that if a Limited Partner subscribes for any Class and/or Series on a date other than January 1, then the first Performance Period with respect to such subscription shall be the period commencing on the date of such subscription and ending on December 31 of such year. If, prior to the end of a calendar year, such Limited Partner redeems all or a portion of its Canadian Fund Units in any Class and/or Series, or transfers any Class and/or Series to a substituted Limited Partner a person, or the final distribution to such Limited Partner is made following the termination of the Class and/or Series, then the last Performance Period with respect to such Limited Partner with respect to such Class (or, in the case of a partial withdrawal or transfer, the last Performance Period with respect to the amount withdrawn or transferred) shall end on the date of such withdrawal, substitution or final distribution.

“Performance Change” for a Performance Period with respect to any Series held by any Limited Partner means, the amount, expressed as a percentage, if any, by which (i) the Net Asset Value per Unit of the applicable Series as of the last day of such Performance Period (before giving effect to any Performance Allocation for such Performance Period) exceeds (ii) the Net Asset Value per Unit of the same Series as of the first day of such Performance Period (after giving effect to any Performance Allocation for the preceding Performance Period). If the amount specified in clause (i) exceeds the amount specified in clause (ii) for a Performance Period, such difference shall be a “Positive Performance Change” and if the amount specified in clause (ii) exceeds the amount specified in clause (i), such difference shall be a “Negative Performance Change”.

“Accumulated Hurdle” means the accumulated amount calculated and accrued on each Valuation Date equal to the product of (a) the Hurdle (prorated for the number of days in the year since the last Valuation Date); and (b) the Net Asset Value per Master Fund Unit on the applicable Valuation Date.

By structuring the Performance Allocation as above, the Fund creates a unique relationship with its investors, in that the return earned by the Investment Manager and its affiliates becomes highly correlated with the investment success of the Limited Partners.

The Investment Manager may make such adjustments to the High Water Mark and Accumulated Hurdle of a Class and/or Series as are determined by the Investment Manager to be necessary to account for the payment of any distributions, splits or consolidation on or of Master Fund Units or any other event or matter that would, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, impact upon the computation of Performance Allocation. Any such determination of the Investment Manager shall, absent manifest error, be binding on all Limited Partners

Because the proceeds of Class A Canadian Fund Units and Class F Canadian Fund Units will be invested in Class A Master Fund Units and Class F Master Fund Units, respectively, Limited Partners holding Class A Canadian Fund Units and Class F Canadian Fund Units will indirectly bear the Performance Allocations charged to the corresponding Class A Master Fund Units and Class F Master Fund Units.

Since the Incentive LP will receive the Performance Allocation at the Master Fund level, no incentive fee or allocation will be paid or allocated at the Partnership level.

The Fund may create additional classes, subclasses and series that may have higher or lower Management Fees, Performance Allocations or other fees and features and such classes, subclasses and series may be restricted to one or more investors or classes of investors by the agreement of the General Partner.

8. SUMMARY OF THE LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

The rights and obligations of Limited Partners are governed by the Partnership Agreement which was entered into between the General Partner and the initial Limited Partner on January 9, 2014. The Partnership is governed by the Partnership Agreement entered into between the General Partner and the initial Limited Partner on January 9, 2014, as amended and restated as of June 2, 2014 and as may be further amended and restated from time to time. The following is a summary of the Partnership Agreement. This summary is not intended to be complete and each investor should carefully review the Partnership Agreement itself for full details of these provisions.

The Canadian Fund Units

The Partnership may issue an unlimited number of Canadian Fund Units in an unlimited number of classes (each, a “Class”), with each Class having such terms, conditions and features (including with respect to payment of Management Fees) as the General Partner may determine in its sole discretion upon the creation of such Class. A new series (each, a “Series”) of each Class of Canadian Fund Units will be issued on each date on which Canadian Fund Units in such Class are issued. Each Canadian Fund Unit of a Series shall be equal to each other Unit of the same Series with respect to all matters. Canadian Fund Units shall be denominated in U.S. dollars or in such other currency selected by the General Partner. The Partnership is offering three classes of Canadian Fund Units pursuant to this Offering Memorandum:

- (a) Class A Canadian Fund Units, which may be offered to eligible subscribers who meet the minimum criteria;
- (b) Class F Canadian Fund Units, which may be offered to (a) eligible subscribers who participate in fee-based programs through authorized registered dealers; (b) eligible subscribers in respect of whom the Partnership does not incur distribution costs; and (c) eligible individual subscribers in the Investment Manager’s sole discretion; and
- (c) Class M Canadian Fund Units, which may only be offered to the shareholders, directors, officers and employees of the Investment Manager, their respective families and other subscribers at the sole discretion of the Investment Manager.

Any issued and outstanding Canadian Fund Units of any Series of a Class may be consolidated, subdivided or converted into, or re-designated as, Canadian Fund Units of any other Series of that Class (after accrual or payment of any Management Fees applicable to such Series) as of the last Business Day of each calendar year or at such other time as the General Partner may determine in its sole discretion. In addition, the Partnership may convert Canadian Fund Units of any Class or Series into a number of Canadian Fund Units of another Class or Series. In connection with any such consolidation, subdivision, conversion or re-designation, the number of Canadian Fund Units of the affected Series and/or Class shall be adjusted if and as necessary such that the aggregate Net Asset Value of such Limited Partner's affected Canadian Fund Units remains unchanged. All conversions of Canadian Fund Units from one Class or Series to any other Class or Series shall be effected by way of compulsory redemption of Canadian Fund Units in one Class or Series and the issue of new Canadian Fund Units in the other Class or Series.

On all matters subject to a vote of or consent by the Limited Partners under the Partnership Agreement, each Limited Partner shall be entitled to one vote per each USD$1.00 of Net Asset Value attributable to the Canadian Fund Units held by such Limited Partner. The Partnership may, in the General Partner's sole discretion, issue one or more Classes of non-voting Canadian Fund Units.

Allocation of Income and Loss

Each fiscal year, the General Partner will allocate the net income, dividends and taxable capital gains (collectively, the "Net Income") and net losses and net capital losses (collectively, the "Net Losses") of the Partnership, as the case may be, in the following priority:

- (a) first, 0.001% will be allocated to the General Partner;
- (b) second, the General Partner in its sole discretion, reasonably exercised, will allocate a portion of the Net Income or Net Losses to Limited Partners who redeem all of their Canadian Fund Units during the fiscal year; and
- (c) third, the remaining unallocated Net Income or Net Losses will be allocated among the Limited Partners, in accordance with their Proportionate Interest, as determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion, acting reasonably.

"Proportionate Interest" means, at any time, with reference to a Limited Partner, the proportion that the Net Asset Value of Units held by such Limited Partner at such time as recorded in the register of Limited Partners is of the total Net Asset Value of the Partnership multiplied by 99.999%.

The General Partner may adopt and amend an allocation policy from time to time intended to fairly and equitably allocate income or loss given the particular circumstances. When allocating Net Income or Net Losses to Limited Partners the General Partner will make any adjustments as are deemed by the General Partner, in its sole discretion, to be necessary to effect an equitable division of Net Income or Net Losses among each the Limited Partners. The General Partner will, to the extent possible, make such adjustments so as to reflect the division to which Limited Partners of a Class would have been entitled had each Class been issued by a separate limited partnership, the only assets, liabilities and income (including realized capital gains) and expenses of which were those notionally attributable to that class.

Calculation of Net Asset Value

The Partnership's "Net Asset Value" shall mean, as of any date, the difference between the Partnership's liabilities and the Partnership's total assets, as calculated by the General Partner or its designee on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and the following principles:

- (a) the value of each Master Fund Unit held by the Partnership as of any date shall be the Master Fund NAV of each Master Fund Unit as of such date;
- (b) if the Partnership holds any securities, investments or assets other than Master Fund Units, such securities, investments or assets shall be valued by the Investment Manager or its designee in accordance the provisions for valuation of securities and other assets of the Master Fund set forth below;
- (c) to the extent not paid or accrued by the Master Fund and reflected in the Master Fund NAV of each Master Fund Unit, other fund expenses (including Organizational Expenses, as defined in Section 9 – "Expenses") and any reserves therefor, shall be treated as liabilities;
- (d) no value will be assigned to goodwill;

- (e) securities contributed to the Partnership as capital contributions, if any, shall be treated as if purchased by the Partnership at market value on the date of contribution, and securities distributed from the Partnership as redemption proceeds, if any, will be treated as if sold by the Partnership at market value on the date of distribution;
- (f) the Net Asset Value of the Partnership shall be calculated in U.S. dollars; and
- (g) the Net Asset Value per Unit will be rounded to such number of decimal places as the General Partner may determine.

In connection with the determinations of the Partnership's Net Asset Value, the General Partner or its designees may consult with and are entitled to rely upon the advice of the Fund's brokers, custodians or other advisers. The Partnership has retained the Investment Manager, pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement, to determine the value of the Partnership's assets in accordance with the principles set out above, and has also retained the Administrator to, among other things, calculate the Partnership's Net Asset Value and the Master Fund's Net Asset Value.

The Master Fund's assets shall each be valued as follows:

- (a) the value of any cash on hand, on deposit or on call, prepaid expenses, cash dividends declared and interest accrued and not yet received, shall be deemed to be the face amount thereof, unless the General Partner (or its delegate) determines that any such deposit or call loan is not worth the face amount thereof, in which event the value thereof shall be deemed to be such value as the General Partner (or its delegate) determines to be the reasonable value thereof;
- (b) the value of any bonds, debentures, and other debt obligations shall be valued by taking the average of the bid and ask prices on a Valuation Date at such times as the General Partner (or its delegate), in its discretion, deems appropriate. Short-term investments including notes and money market instruments shall be valued at cost plus accrued interest;
- (c) the value of any security, index futures or index options thereon which is listed on any recognized exchange shall be determined by the closing sale price at the close of business on the Valuation Date or, if there is no sale price, the average between the closing bid and the closing asked price on the day on which the Master Fund NAV is being determined, all as reported by any report in common use or authorized as official by a recognized stock exchange; provided that if such stock exchange is not open for trading on that date, then on the last previous date on which such stock exchange was open for trading;
- (d) the value of any security or other asset for which a market quotation is not readily available shall be its fair market value as determined by the General Partner (or its delegate);
- (e) the value of any security, the resale of which is restricted or limited, shall be the lesser of the value thereof based on reported quotations in common use and that percentage of the market value of securities of the same class, the trading of which is not restricted or limited by reason of any representation, undertaking or agreement or by law, equal to the percentage that the Master Fund's acquisition cost was of the market value of such securities at the time of acquisition; provided that a gradual taking into account of the actual value of the securities may be made where the date on which the restriction will be lifted is known;
- (f) purchased or written clearing corporation options, options on futures, over-the-counter options, debt like securities and listed warrants shall be valued at the current market value thereof;
- (g) where a covered clearing corporation option, option on futures or over-the-counter option is written, the premium received by the Master Fund shall be reflected as a deferred credit which shall be valued at an amount equal to the current market value of the clearing corporation option, option on futures or over-the-counter option that would have the effect of closing the position. Any difference resulting from revaluation of such options shall be treated as an unrealized gain or loss on investment. The deferred credit shall be deducted in arriving at the Master Fund NAV. The securities, if any, which are the subject of a written clearing corporation option, or over-the-counter option shall be valued at their then current market value;
- (h) the value of a futures contract, or a forward contract, shall be the gain or loss with respect thereto that would be realized if, at 4:00 p.m. (Eastern time) or such other time as the General Partner (or its delegate) may designate from time to time, the position in the futures contract, or the forward contract, as the case may be, were to be closed out unless daily limits are in effect in which case fair value shall be based on the current market value of the underlying interest;
- (i) the value of the securities of an investment fund shall be the net asset value or similar value of the securities of the investment fund as provided by the manager, administrator or party acting in a similar capacity of the investment fund and available to the General Partner (or its delegate) as of a time proximate to the close of business on the date on which the Master Fund NAV is being calculated, whether or not the securities of such investment fund are listed or dealt with on a stock exchange. If a net asset value or similar value of the investment fund as of a time reasonably proximate to the close of business on the date on which the Master Fund NAV is being calculated is not available to the General Partner (or its delegate), the value shall be based on an estimate provided by the Investment Manager or in such other manner as the General Partner (or its delegate) shall determine;

- (j) margin paid or deposited in respect of futures contracts and forward contracts shall be reflected as an account receivable and margin consisting of assets other than cash shall be noted as held as margin;
- (k) all securities, property and assets of the Master Fund valued in a foreign currency and all liabilities and obligations of the Master Fund payable by the Master Fund in foreign currency shall be converted into U.S. funds by applying the rate of exchange obtained from the best available sources to the General Partner (or its delegate), including, but not limited to, the General Partner (or its delegate) or any of its affiliates;
- (l) all expenses or liabilities (including distributions payable to the Investment Manager) of the Master Fund shall be calculated on an accrual basis; and
- (m) the value of any security or property to which, in the opinion of the General Partner (or its delegate), the above valuation principles cannot be applied (whether because no price or yield equivalent quotations are available as above provided, or for any other reason) shall be the fair value thereof determined in such manner as the General Partner (or its delegate) from time to time provides.

Distributions

Net profit of the Partnership allocated to the Partners for any fiscal period may be distributed in whole or in part from time to time or at any time in the sole discretion of the General Partner. No payment may be made to a Limited Partner from the assets of the Partnership if the payment would reduce the assets of the Partnership to an insufficient amount to discharge the liabilities of the Partnership to persons who are not the General Partner or a Limited Partner.

Redemptions of Canadian Fund Units

No Limited Partner shall be entitled to have the Partnership redeem any of its Canadian Fund Units or to otherwise receive any distributions from any of such Limited Partner's capital accounts except as provided for in the Partnership Agreement or as otherwise consented to, and upon such terms as may be determined by, the General Partner in its sole discretion.

An investment in the Fund is intended to be a long-term investment. However, holders of Class A Canadian Fund Units, Class F Canadian Fund Units and Class M Canadian Fund Units may request that such Canadian Fund Units be redeemed on the last Business Day in any fiscal quarter (a "Redemption Date"), upon not less than 60 days' prior written request to the General Partner. Any requests for redemption entered after such time will be processed as of the next Redemption Date.

Redemption requests submitted by investors are irrevocable unless they are not honoured by the Partnership on the applicable Redemption Date. If a redemption request is not honoured on the applicable Redemption Date, the request for redemption may be withdrawn within 15 days following the Redemption Date on which the redemption request was not honoured.

Redemptions of Canadian Fund Units are generally effected by the concurrent redemption of the corresponding number and class and series of Master Fund Units held by the Partnership at the applicable Net Asset Value per Unit thereof in accordance with the Master Fund's partnership agreement. The amount received by the Partnership from redemptions of any Master Fund Units for which a Performance Allocation is chargeable shall be net of the amount, if any, of the accrued Performance Allocations chargeable to such Master Fund Units as of the date of such redemption, to the extent such accrued amount is not reflected in the Master Fund NAV as of such date. The redemption proceeds for each Canadian Fund Unit redeemed by the Partnership shall be an amount equal to Net Asset Value attributable to such Canadian Fund Unit, less any amount accrued in respect of the Performance Allocation, if any, as of the close of business on the Redemption Date, plus any pre-paid Management Fees charged to the redeemed Canadian Fund Units in respect of any period after the Redemption Date, if any. Redemption proceeds for Canadian Fund Units will generally be paid within 10 Business Days of the Redemption Date.

If a Limited Partner requests a redemption of Canadian Fund Units that have not been held by such Limited Partner for at least 12 months, the General Partner may, in its sole discretion, withhold 3% from the aggregate Net Asset Value of the Canadian Fund

Units being tendered for redemption (an “Early Redemption Fee”). The Early Redemption Fee will be retained by the Partnership. The General Partner has the sole discretion to waive or reduce the amount of the Early Redemption Fee.

If all of the Canadian Fund Units of a particular Class held by a Limited Partner are being redeemed, then, in such event, (i) the General Partner may hold back up to 5% of the aggregate redemption amount payable to such Limited Partner until the Master Fund has finalized its year-end audit for the period covering the applicable Redemption Date; (ii) payment of an amount equal to 95% of the total redemption payment due in respect of those redeemed Units shall be made within 15 Business Days of the Redemption Date, and (iii) the balance of the redemption proceeds shall be paid to the Limited Partner as soon as practicable following completion of the Master Fund’s audit for the fiscal year in which the Redemption Date occurs, and after giving effect to any year-end adjustments deemed necessary or appropriate by the General Partner, including the establishment of reserves that the General Partner deems necessary or appropriate to account for contingent or other liabilities of the Master Fund existing as of the Redemption Date.

Redemption proceeds may be paid in cash or in kind or a combination thereof at the Investment Manager’s sole discretion.

The General Partner may, at any time and in its sole discretion, permit redemptions at any other times or otherwise modify or waive any of the conditions or requirements for redemptions for any Limited Partners, including affiliates of the General Partner and the Investment Manager, without notice to or the consent of any Limited Partners.

The Partnership shall have the right, in the General Partner’s sole discretion, to redeem any or all of a Limited Partner’s Canadian Fund Units at any time, upon written notice to such Limited Partner, including in the event that a Limited Partner is no longer eligible to invest in the Partnership. Payment for any mandatorily redeemed Canadian Fund Units shall be made to the Limited Partner within 60 days of the Redemption Date. However, upon a mandatory redemption of all of a Limited Partner’s Canadian Fund Units of any Class, payment of the redemption proceeds with respect to the redeemed Canadian Fund Units of such Class shall be made: (i) 95% within 15 Business Days of the Redemption Date, and (ii) the balance as soon as practicable following completion of the Master Fund’s audit for the fiscal year in which the redemption occurs, and after giving effect to any year-end adjustments deemed necessary or appropriate by the General Partner, including the establishment of reserves that the General Partner deems necessary or appropriate to account for contingent or other liabilities of the Partnership existing as of the Redemption Date.

If the Master Fund receives requests for redemptions for any Redemption Date that would result in redemption payments in an aggregate amount exceeding 25% of the Master Fund NAV as of such Redemption Date, the General Partner shall have the right to reduce the amount of redemption requests effected on such Redemption Date so that the aggregate redemption payments to be made do not exceed 25% of the Master Fund NAV. Any such reduction shall be made pro rata among all of the Limited Partners and securityholders of other Feeder Vehicles requesting withdrawals based on the amount of such Limited Partner’s investment in the Partnership on that Redemption Date. In such event, any Canadian Fund Units that are not redeemed on the requested date may not be redeemed unless and until, and only to the extent that, the applicable Limited Partner delivers a new redemption request for such Canadian Fund Units.

In the event that a Limited Partner has made a redemption request on the applicable redemption Date for three consecutive calendar quarters and, following such redemption request such Limited Partner has not received the full value of its redemption request after the applicable Redemption Date of the third consecutive calendar quarter, the redemption request (or the remainder thereof in the case of a partial redemption) shall be distributed to such Limited Partner on the applicable Redemption Date of the fourth consecutive calendar quarter following the initial date of the redemption request.

Redemptions may be suspended or the date of payment of redemption proceeds may be postponed in such circumstances as the General Partner may reasonably determine. Examples of such circumstances include, without limitation, if the General Partner reasonably determines that: (i) the Master Fund’s assets are invested in such a manner so as to not reasonably permit immediate liquidation of sufficient assets in a timely fashion to meet redemption requirements; (ii) there exists a state of affairs that constitutes circumstances under which liquidation by the Master Fund of part or all of its investments is not reasonable or practicable, or would be prejudicial to the Master Fund or Limited Partners generally, including if, in the General Partner’s sole judgment, a material adverse change or disruption has occurred in the financial, banking or capital markets generally which has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Fund; (iii) not suspending redemptions would have an adverse effect on continuing Limited Partners; (iv) the General Partner is unable to value the assets of the Fund with reasonable reliability, (v) if any market or stock exchange on which a material part of the assets of the Master Fund are traded is closed (other than for ordinary holidays), or dealings thereon are restricted, suspended or experience a material interruption or disruption in ordinary trading; (vi) there is a disruption to the means of communications normally employed in determining the prices of a material part of the investments of the Master Fund; or (vii) where the satisfaction of redemption requests is prohibited by law. Redemptions may also be suspended upon an announcement by the General Partner that the Master Fund and/or Partnership will be terminated. In the event of a suspension or postponement of redemptions, the General Partner will give notice to Limited Partners of such suspension or postponement.

Additionally, if on any Redemption Date the assets of the Master Fund are invested in investments which the Master Fund is unable to realize, or if realized would be at a value determined by the General Partner to be a discount to their true value, or if the Master Fund is unable (or it is not practicable) to distribute any such investment for the redemption of the applicable Canadian Fund Units, then, in the discretion of the General Partner, payment to the Limited Partner of the portion of the redemption proceeds relating to such investment may be delayed until such time as such investment may be realized or may be realized at a value which is not, in the determination of the General Partner, a discounted value, or the Master Fund is able to distribute such investment. In such event, the portion of the redemption proceeds otherwise due to the Limited Partner will be increased or decreased to reflect the performance of such investment through the date on which such investment is realized by the Master Fund or to reflect the increase or decrease in the value of the investment through the date on which it is distributed or otherwise disposed of by the Master Fund, net of any and all applicable Management Fees, Performance Allocations or accrued Performance Allocations covering such period.

Transfers

Canadian Fund Units are not transferrable or assignable, and may not be pledged, by Limited Partners without the General Partner's prior consent, which may be granted or withheld in the General Partner's sole and absolute discretion. Any purported transfer, assignment or pledge of Canadian Fund Units not made with the General Partner's consent shall be null and void and of no force or effect whatsoever.

In the event of the death, disability, incapacity, adjudication of incompetency, termination, bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution of a Limited Partner, the executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other personal representative of that Limited Partner shall be deemed to be the assignee of the Limited Partner's Canadian Fund Units but shall not be admitted as a Limited Partner without the consent of the General Partner, in its sole discretion.

Management of the Partnership

The management and control of the Partnership shall be vested exclusively in the General Partner, subject to the General Partner's rights to delegate all investment management and strategy decisions to the Investment Manager pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement and to delegate any accounting, recordkeeping, reporting or other administrative duties to the Administrator. The General Partner shall have the power on behalf and in the name of the Partnership to carry out any and all of the purposes of the Partnership and to enter into and perform all contracts, acts and other undertakings that it may deem necessary, advisable or incidental thereto.

The Limited Partners shall have no part in the management of the Partnership and shall have no authority or right in their capacities as Limited Partners to act on behalf of the Partnership in connection with any matter.

The General Partner may, from time to time, employ any person or engage third parties to render services to the Fund on such terms and for such compensation as the General Partner may determine in its sole discretion, including the Investment Manager, the Administrator, auditors, accountants, custodians, attorneys, investment consultants, brokers or finders. Such employees and third parties may be affiliates of the General Partner, the Investment Manager or any Limited Partner. Persons retained, engaged or employed by the Fund may also be engaged, retained or employed by and act on behalf of the General Partner, the Investment Manager, the Master Fund, any Feeder Vehicle, any of their affiliates, one or more Limited Partners or any of their respective Affiliates.

Other Activities of the General Partner

The General Partner shall devote such of its time as, in its discretion, it deems to be necessary and sufficient for the conduct of the Partnership's business. Neither the General Partner, the Investment Manager, nor their affiliates, nor any stockholder, member, partner, principal, director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the foregoing (a "Related Person") shall be precluded from engaging, presently or in the future, and without accountability to the Partnership or any Limited Partner, in any other business venture or ventures of any nature and description, including the management, financing, syndication or development of other investment funds, accounts or ventures that are similar to the Fund, or from acting as investment manager, adviser or consultant to others, a trustee of any trust or a general partner of another limited partnership, nor shall the General Partner, the Investment Manager, or any of their affiliates or Related Persons be precluded from directly or indirectly purchasing, selling and holding securities for their own individual accounts or the accounts of such other businesses, irrespective of whether any of the same securities are also purchased, sold or held for the account of the Fund. Neither the Partnership nor any Partner shall have any rights in or to other business ventures or the income or profits derived from other activities by the General Partner, the Investment Manager, any of their affiliates or any of their Related Persons or from any transaction in securities affected by the General Partner, the Investment Manager, any of the affiliates or any of their Related Persons for any account other than that of the Fund, nor shall the General Partner, the Investment Manager, any of the affiliates or any of their Related Persons be under any obligation to first offer any investment opportunities to the Fund or to allocate investments (as between the Fund, individual clients, or otherwise) in any particular manner, other than as they shall determine in their sole discretion.

Exculpation and Indemnification of the General Partner and the Investment Manager

None of the General Partner, the Investment Manager, any affiliates thereof, or any of their respective stockholders, members, partners, principals, directors, officers, managers, trustees, employees or agents (each, an “Indemnified Person”) shall be liable to the Partnership or to any Limited Partner for any errors of judgment or for any act or omission, or losses due to any such error, act or omission, of any Indemnified Person in connection with the conduct of the affairs of the Fund or otherwise in connection with the Partnership Agreement or the matters contemplated herein, unless such error, action or inaction constitutes fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct. In addition, no Indemnified Person shall be liable to the Partnership or to any Limited Partner for any mistake, action or omission to act, negligence, dishonesty or bad faith of any broker, advisor or other agent of the Fund selected by the General Partner or other Indemnified Person with reasonable care. The General Partner and any Indemnified Person may consult with auditors, accountants and counsel with respect to Fund affairs and be fully protected and justified in any action or inaction that is taken or omitted with the advice or option of such auditor, accountant or counsel, provided that such auditor, accountant or counsel has been selected by the General Partner or other Indemnified Person with reasonable care.

For the purposes of the Partnership Agreement and the limited partnership agreement of the Master Fund, gross negligence has been defined as a standard of conduct beyond negligence whereby a person acts with reckless disregard for the consequences of a breach of a duty of care owed to another.

The Partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Person from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromises and settlements, as fines and penalties, and legal costs and expenses, including attorney’s fees and expenses, of investigating or defending against any claim or threatened claim) (collectively, “Losses”) arising from claims, demands, investigations, actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal or administrative, in which any Indemnified Person may be involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of its relation to the Fund or the management or conduct of the affairs of the Fund, whether or not any such Indemnified Person continues to serve in such capacity at the time any such Losses are paid or incurred. No Indemnified Person shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder against any Losses found by a court to have arisen from such Indemnified Person’s gross negligence, wilful misconduct or breach of its standard of care, and which finding is no longer subject to appeal.

Expenses incurred by an Indemnified Person in defense or settlement of any claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Partnership prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking, reasonably satisfactory to the General Partner, by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person to repay such amount to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that such Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder.

The rights of indemnification and contribution provided in the Partnership Agreement shall be in addition to any rights to which any Indemnified Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law, and shall extend to their respective successors and assigns.

Reports to Limited Partners

Subject to standing instructions from the Limited Partner, within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year or such other period as required by applicable law, the General Partner will forward to each Limited Partner an annual report for such fiscal year consisting of (i) audited financial statements for such fiscal year; (ii) a report of the auditor on such financial statements; (iii)

a report on allocations of taxable income or loss and distributions of cash to the General Partner and the Limited Partners for such fiscal period; and (iv) tax information to enable each Limited Partner to properly complete and file his or her tax returns in Canada in relation to an investment in Canadian Fund Units.

Subject to standing instructions from the Limited Partner, the General Partner will forward to each Limited Partner unaudited semi-annual financial information concerning the Partnership within sixty (60) days of the end of the relevant interim financial period. Information respecting the Net Asset Value per Unit will be provided on a quarterly basis and on a more frequent basis at the discretion of the Investment Manager.

Financial reports of the Partnership will be prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles for publicly accountable entities, which incorporates IFRS.

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Partnership shall end on December 31 of each calendar year.

Amendment of the Partnership Agreement

The General Partner may, without prior notice to or consent from any Limited Partner, amend the Partnership Agreement:

- (a) in order to create additional Classes or Series and the terms thereof;
- (b) in order to protect the interests or for the benefit of the Limited Partners or the Partnership, if necessary;
- (c) to cure any ambiguity or clerical error or to correct or supplement any provision contained herein which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision if such amendment does not and shall not in any manner have a material adverse effect on the interests of any Limited Partner as a Limited Partner;
- (d) to reflect any changes to any applicable legislation; or
- (e) in any other manner provided that such amendment does not and shall not have a material adverse effect on the interests of any Limited Partner.

Within 15 days following the date of any material amendment to the Partnership Agreement made without notice to or consent from any Limited Partner, the General Partner shall provide Limited Partners with a copy of the amendment.

The Partnership Agreement may be amended at any time by:

- (a) the General Partner with the consent of the Limited Partners given by Special Resolution (defined below); or
- (b) the General Partner without the consent of the Limited Partners provided the Limited Partners are given not less than sixty (60) days' written notice prior to the effective date of the amendment (together with a copy of the amendment and an explanation of the reasons for the amendment), and each Limited Partner is given the opportunity to redeem all of such Limited Partner's Canadian Fund Units as of the Redemption Date prior to the effective date of such amendment (in such event the General Partner shall be deemed to have waived the required redemption notice, to the extent necessary, and to have waived the Early Redemption Fee on such Canadian Fund Units, if any).

For certainty, and despite anything in the Partnership Agreement, a change to the investment objectives and strategies of the Partnership or the Master Fund may be made by the General Partner without the consent of the Limited Partners provided that sixty (60) days' prior written notice is given to the Limited Partners as described in paragraph (b) above.

A "Special Resolution" means a resolution approved by the General Partner and by not less than 66 2/3% of the votes cast by those Limited Partners who vote on the resolution, in person or by proxy, at a meeting of the Limited Partners, or at any adjournment thereof, called and held in accordance with the Partnership Agreement, or a written resolution signed by the General Partner and by Limited Partners holding Canadian Fund Units entitled to be voted on such a resolution with an aggregate Net Asset Value of not less than 66 2/3% of the Net Asset Value of all of the Canadian Fund Units entitled to be voted on the resolution.

Other Agreements

The General Partner or the Investment Manager, on its own behalf or on behalf of the Partnership, at any time and without the approval of any Limited Partner, may execute side letters or similar written agreements (“Other Agreements”) to or with Limited Partners executed in connection with the admission of such persons to the Partnership, which have the effect of establishing rights under or altering or supplementing the terms of the Partnership Agreement, including with respect to redemptions, or payments or rebates of Management Fees or Performance Allocations. Any terms contained in an Other Agreement to or with a Limited Partner shall govern with respect to such Limited Partner notwithstanding the provisions of the Partnership Agreement.

Term

The Partnership has no fixed term. The existence of the Partnership shall continue until the first to occur of (i) the General Partner’s decision, in its sole discretion, to dissolve the Partnership upon not less than 30 days’ prior notice to the Limited Partners; (ii) the General Partner’s resignation or other termination as general partner of the Partnership; or (iii) the procurement of a court order of dissolution pursuant to section 10(c) of the Limited Partnerships Act (Ontario) (the “Partnership Act”).

9. EXPENSES

The Partnership, and each other Feeder Vehicle, will indirectly bear its own expenses and a pro rata portion (based on their respective investments in the Master Fund) of all costs and expenses of the Master Fund, including: (i) legal, compliance, administrator, audit and accounting expenses (including third party accounting services), including the Partnership’s costs of preparation of reports to Limited Partners; (ii) expenses (including legal, accounting, filing, printing and related expenses) incurred in connection with the organization and funding of the Partnership and the Master Fund and the establishment of the General Partner, as determined in good faith by the General Partner (“Organizational Expenses”); (iii) shareholder proxy voting services; (iv) ongoing administrative expenses of the Master Fund and the General Partner; (v) insurance costs (including D&O and E&O insurance for the Investment Manager and General Partner, but not including financial institution bond coverage); (vi) investment expenses and fees related to acquiring, holding, monitoring and disposing of the Master Fund’s investments, including all direct trading expenses, brokerage commissions and service fees and clearing and settlement charges; (vii) interest on margin accounts and other indebtedness; (viii) borrowing charges on securities sold short; (ix) custodial and bank service fees; (x) regulatory, compliance or filing expenses; (xi) legal fees and expenses, including fees and expenses incurred in connection with negotiating and entering into contracts, in connection with any action or proceeding or preparing any reports or documents required to be filed pursuant to applicable laws or regulations; (xii) costs and expenses incurred in connection with the offering, marketing and sale of interests in the Partnership; (xiii) indemnification or extraordinary costs or expenses or liabilities relating to the affairs of the Partnership and the Master Fund; (xiv) all costs and expenses of liquidating the Partnership and Master Fund; (xv) any taxes, fees or other governmental charges levied against the Partnership and Master Fund and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with any tax audit, investigation, settlement or review of the Partnership and Master Fund; (xvi) any other expenses related to the purchase, sale or transmittal of the Partnership and Master Fund’s assets, and (xvii) expenses related to the Deferred Performance Account (as defined in Section 7 – “Performance Allocation”). To the extent that expenses will be paid directly by the Master Fund, such liabilities will be included in the Master Fund NAV. The Investment Manager and the General Partner may from time to time, in each of their sole discretion, waive or reimburse the Partnership or Master Fund, as the case may be, for some of their expenses, including Organizational Expenses.

The Master Fund will bear all of the fees and expenses relating to the organization of the Master Fund, the Partnership and the offering of Canadian Fund Units. In determining the Master Fund NAV for purposes of subscriptions and redemptions, the Master Fund will amortize the Organizational Expenses over a 60-month period. For financial reporting purposes, IFRS requires that organizational costs be treated as an expense when incurred. The financial statements of the Partnership and Master Fund will include a comparison of the Net Asset Value per Unit for financial reporting purposes to the Net Asset Value per Unit used for all other purposes, including the processing of subscriptions and redemptions.

The Management Fee will not be charged at the Partnership level, but will instead be charged at the Master Fund Level. See “Management Fee” above.

The Investment Manager will render its services to the Partnership and the Master Fund at its own expense and will be responsible for its overhead expenses including: office rent; utilities; furniture and fixtures; stationery; secretarial/internal administrative services; salaries; employee insurance and payroll taxes.

10. DEALER COMPENSATION

Sales Commission

No sales commission is payable to the Investment Manager in respect of Canadian Fund Units purchased directly by a subscriber. Registered dealers through whom a subscriber purchases Canadian Fund Units may charge a negotiated sales commission of up to 5%. Any such sales commission will be negotiated between the registered dealer and the subscriber and will be payable directly by the subscriber to the dealer. Investments in the Partnership, including any required minimum investments, are net of such commissions.

Servicing Commission

From the Management Fee received by the Investment Manager in respect of Class A Canadian Fund Units, the Investment Manager may pay a monthly servicing commission (the “Servicing Commission”) to registered dealers whose clients hold Class A Canadian Fund Units. The rate of Servicing Commission will be negotiated between the Investment Manager and registered dealers. The payments are calculated as at the last Valuation Date of each month and paid monthly in arrears by the Investment Manager.

The Investment Manager may pay additional compensation from its own account to registered dealers, individuals and entities who refer investors to the Fund on a case-by-case basis. Any such arrangements will be made in accordance with applicable legislation. Such payments may be modified or discontinued by the Investment Manager at any time.

11. ADMINISTRATOR

The Administrator, Apex Fund Services (Canada) Ltd., has been appointed by the Investment Manager, pursuant to a written administration agreement (the “Administration Agreement”), to provide administrative services to the Partnership. The Administrator has its principal place of business at 175 Bloor Street East, Suite 807, South Tower, Toronto, Ontario, M4W 3R8.

An affiliate of the Administrator, Apex Fund Services Ltd., has been appointed by the Investment Manager pursuant to a written administration agreement substantially similar to the Administration Agreement to provide administrative services to the Master Fund.

The Administrator, in the case of the Partnership, and Apex Fund Services Ltd., in the case of the Master Fund, will calculate the Net Asset Value of the Partnership and the Master Fund NAV, keep the books and records of the Partnership and the Master Fund as required by applicable law or otherwise for the proper recording of the financial affairs of the Partnership and the Master Fund, liaise with the Partnership and the Master Fund’s auditor with respect to the audit of the financial statements for each financial year of the Partnership and the Master Fund, reconcile records of investments maintained by the Partnership and the Master Fund, calculate all the operating expenses of the Partnership and the Master Fund, determine the Management Fees, the General Partner’s Performance Allocation and the Net Asset Value of the Canadian Fund Units of each Limited Partner, calculate each Partner’s share of taxable income, expenses, gains and losses of all types, and complete the T5013 return and relevant slips for the Limited Partners and General Partner, maintain the register of all the partners of the Partnership and the Master Fund, prepare financial statements for the Partnership and the Master Fund, pay to or deposit with the Partnership and the Master Fund’s bankers all moneys, bills and notes received by it on behalf of the Partnership and the Master Fund, manage and make payments from accounts of the Partnership and the Master Fund, manage and process subscriptions and redemptions, process allocations and distributions of income (including capital gains), dividends and/or losses to each partner in the Partnership and the Master Fund and provide other services as agreed between the Partnership, the Master Fund, the Investment Manager and the Administrator from time to time.

The Administrator will receive fees from the Partnership and the Master Fund in accordance with the Administration Agreement.

The Administrator has agreed to provide its services in accordance with applicable law and to exercise the care, diligence, and skill that would reasonably be expected of a prudent and professional administrator in providing the services set out in the Administration Agreement, subject to the control of and review by the Investment Manager. The Fund has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the Administrator from and against all liabilities, damages, costs, claims and expenses (including and without limitation reasonable legal fees and amounts actually and reasonably incurred, with the consent of the Investment Manager, such consent not to be unreasonable withheld) (the “Claims”) incurred by the Administrator or its officers, employees, servants, or agents in the performance of any of their obligations or duties under the Administration Agreement (including and without limitation complying with directions given to the Administrator by or on behalf of the Investment Manager) except where such Claims liabilities, damages, costs, claims and expenses arise from the Administrator's own gross negligence, willful misconduct, fraud, breach of its standard of care or material breach of the Administration Agreement. The Administrator will not be liable to the Partnership and the Master Fund for any loss suffered by the Partnership, the Master Fund, the General Partner or the Investment Manager in connection with the performance by the Administrator of its obligations under the Administration Agreement, except a loss resulting directly from the gross negligence, willful misconduct, fraud, breach of its standard of care or material breach of the Administration Agreement on the part of the Administrator in the performance of its obligations and duties. The Administrator will not be liable for any indirect, special or consequential loss howsoever arising.

The Administration Agreement may not be terminated within one year of the date of the Administration Agreement unless mutually agreed between both parties and thereafter may be terminated by either party upon at least 90 days' prior written notice to the other party. The Administration Agreement may also be terminated by either party under certain circumstances, including bankruptcy or insolvency of the other party, and by the Investment Manager in the event of a change of control of the Administrator.

The Administrator is not responsible for any trading or valuation decisions of the Partnership and the Master Fund all of which decisions will be made by the Investment Manager.

THE ADMINISTRATOR WILL NOT PROVIDE ANY INVESTMENT ADVISORY OR MANAGEMENT SERVICE TO THE FUND AND THEREFORE WILL NOT BE IN ANY WAY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FUND'S PERFORMANCE. THE ADMINISTRATOR WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR MONITORING ANY INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS OR COMPLIANCE WITH THE INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS AND THEREFORE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY BREACH THEREOF.

12. AUDITOR

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is the auditor for the Fund, and the General Partner may change the Fund's auditor without prior notice to the Limited Partners. Canadian law does not restrict the ability of auditors to limit their liability and the engagement letter or agreement the Fund has entered into with its auditor may contain exculpation provisions and provisions requiring the Fund to indemnify the auditor under certain circumstances.

13. BROKERAGE AND CUSTODY

The Investment Manager is authorized to choose the broker or dealer to be used for each securities transaction for the Fund. In selecting brokers or dealers to execute transactions, the Investment Manager need not solicit competitive bids and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available commission cost. It is not the Investment Manager's practice to negotiate "execution only" commission rates, thus the Fund may be deemed to be paying for research, brokerage or other services provided by the broker which are included in the commission rate.

Canadian securities laws permit an investment manager to use client brokerage commissions or "soft dollars" to obtain research and order execution goods and services that provide lawful and appropriate assistance in the investment decision-making process as long as that process is disclosed. Except for services that would be a Fund expense or as otherwise described below, the Investment Manager will limit the use of "soft dollars" to only obtain research and order execution goods and services. Research goods and services, as defined by applicable securities laws, may include, but are not limited to, research reports (including market research), certain financial newsletters and trade journals, software providing analysis of securities portfolios, corporate governance research and rating services, attendance at certain seminars and conferences, discussions with research analysts, meetings with corporate executives, consultants' advice on portfolio strategy, data services (including services providing market data, company financial data and economic data), advice from brokers on order execution, and certain proxy services. Order execution goods and services, as defined by applicable securities laws, may include, but are not limited to, services related to the execution, clearing and settlement of securities transactions and functions incidental thereto (i.e., connectivity services between an investment manager and a broker-dealer and other relevant parties such as custodians), trading software operated by a broker-dealer to route orders, software that provides trade analytics and trading strategies, software used to transmit orders, clearance and settlement in connection with a trade, electronic communication of allocation instructions, routing settlement instructions, post trade matching of trade information, and services required by the Ontario Securities Commission or a self regulatory organization such as comparison services, electronic confirms or trade affirmations. The use of "soft dollars" arising from the Fund's investment transactions for services other than research and brokerage will be limited to goods and services that would otherwise be a Fund expense. The use of commissions to obtain such other services would be outside the parameters of applicable securities laws.

In some instances, the Investment Manager may receive a product or service that may be used only partially for functions within applicable securities laws (e.g., an order management system, trade analytical software or proxy services). In such instances, the Investment Manager will make a good faith effort to determine the relative proportion of the product or service used to assist the Investment Manager in carrying out its investment decision-making responsibilities and the relative proportion used for administrative or other purposes outside what would be permissible under applicable securities laws. The proportion of the product or service attributable to assisting the Investment Manager in carrying out its investment decision-making responsibilities will be paid through brokerage commissions generated by client transactions and the proportion attributable to administrative or other purposes outside what would be permissible under applicable securities laws will be paid for by the Investment Manager from its own resources.

Research and brokerage services obtained by the use of commissions arising from the Fund's portfolio transactions may be used by the Investment Manager in its other investment activities and thus, the Fund may not necessarily, in any particular instance, be the sole direct or indirect beneficiary of the research or brokerage services provided.

Although the Investment Manager will make a good faith determination that the amount of commissions paid is reasonable in light of the products or services provided by a broker, commission rates are generally negotiable and thus, selecting brokers on the basis of considerations that are not limited to the applicable commission rates may result in higher transaction costs than would otherwise be obtainable. The receipt of such products or services and the determination of the appropriate allocation in the case of "mixed use" products or services creates a potential conflict of interest between the Investment Manager and its clients.

In order to make a good faith determination that the amount of commissions paid is reasonable in light of the products or services provided by a broker, when selecting brokers and negotiating commission rates, the Investment Manager will take into account the financial stability and reputation of brokerage firms and the research, brokerage or other services provided by such brokers. The Investment Manager may place transactions with a broker or dealer that (i) provides the Investment Manager (or an affiliate) with the opportunity to participate in capital introduction events sponsored by the broker-dealer or (ii) refers investors to the Fund or other products advised by the Investment Manager (or an affiliate), if otherwise consistent with seeking best execution, provided the Investment Manager is not selecting the broker-dealer in recognition of the opportunity to participate in such capital introduction events or the referral of investors.

When appropriate, the Investment Manager may, but is not required to, aggregate client orders to achieve more efficient execution or to provide for equitable treatment among accounts. Clients participating in aggregated trades will be allocated securities based on the average price achieved for such trades.

The Fund will maintain an account with the Prime Brokers, through which the Fund may execute trades, borrow securities and maintain custody of its securities.

The Fund reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change the brokerage and custodial arrangements described above without further notice to Limited Partners.

14. POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Securities regulation in Ontario requires that potential conflicts of interest be fully disclosed in this Offering Memorandum. Such potential conflicts are perceived to arise whenever a registrant such as the Investment Manager participates in the distribution of securities of a related or connected issuer.

In this case, because the Investment Manager is an affiliate of the General Partner and the Incentive LP and because the Investment Manager earns fees from the ongoing management of the Fund's investment portfolio, the Partnership is considered both a related issuer and a connected issuer of the Investment Manager. Details of this relationship and the fees earned by the Investment Manager are fully disclosed elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

The Investment Manager will use its best efforts in connection with the purposes and objectives of the Fund and will devote so much of its time and effort to the affairs of the Fund as may, in its judgment, be necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Fund. Under the terms of the Investment Management Agreement, the Investment Manager may from time to time be a portfolio manager to discretionary accounts and to other investment funds in addition to the Partnership and the Master Fund. If the availability of any particular investment security is limited and that security meets the investment objective of the Fund and also that of one or more of the Investment Manager's other managed accounts and investment funds, such security will be allocated on an equitable basis having regard to whether the security is currently held in any of the relevant investment portfolios, the relevant size and rate of growth of the Fund, the managed accounts and the other funds, and any other factors which the Investment Manager considers reasonable.

The Investment Manager and its officers, directors, employees and agents (collectively the "Affiliated Parties") may conduct any other business, including any business within the securities industry, whether or not such business is in competition with the Fund. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any of the Affiliated Parties may act as general partner, investment adviser or investment manager for others, may manage investment funds, separate accounts or capital for others, may have, make and maintain investments in their own name or through other entities and may serve as an officer, director, consultant, partner or stockholder of one or more investment funds, partnerships, securities firms or advisory firms. In this regard, it should be noted that the Investment Manager serves as investment manager to the Partnership and the Master Fund and the General Partner serves as general partner to the Partnership, the Master Fund and the Incentive LP. Such other entities or accounts may have investment objectives or may implement investment strategies similar or different to those of the Fund. In addition, the Affiliated Parties may, through other investments, including other investment funds, have interests in the securities in which the Fund invests as well as interests in investments in which the Fund does not invest. One or more of the Affiliated Parties may also have a significant interest, directly or indirectly, in the Master Fund from time to time. A "significant interest" in the Master Fund means that any one Affiliated Party (directly or indirectly) holds 10% or more of the outstanding securities of the Master Fund, or that one or more Affiliated Parties together or individually (directly or indirectly) hold more than 50% of the outstanding securities of the Master Fund.

As a result of the foregoing, the Affiliated Parties may have conflicts of interest in allocating their time and activity between the Fund and other entities, in allocating investments among the Fund and other entities and in effecting transactions for the Fund and other entities, including ones in which the Affiliated Parties may have a greater financial interest.

In addition, purchase and sale transactions (including swaps) may be effected between the Fund and the other entities or accounts subject to the following guidelines: (i) such transactions shall be effected for cash consideration at the current market price of the particular securities, and (ii) no extraordinary brokerage commissions or fees (i.e., except for customary transfer fees or commissions) or other remuneration shall be paid in connection with any such transaction.

From the standpoint of the Fund, simultaneous identical portfolio transactions for the Fund and the other clients may tend to decrease the prices received, and increase the prices required to be paid, by the Fund for its portfolio sales and purchases. Where less than the maximum desired number of shares of a particular security to be purchased is available at a favorable price, the shares purchased will be allocated among the Fund and the other clients in an equitable manner as determined by the Affiliated Parties. Further, it may not always be possible or consistent with the investment objectives of the various persons or entities described above and of the Fund for the same investment positions to be taken or liquidated at the same time or at the same price, however all transactions will be made on a "best execution" basis.

It should be noted that the Prime Brokers and the Administrator act as prime broker and administrator for other funds and thus may have conflicts from time to time.

15. RISK FACTORS

The following risks factors should be carefully considered before making an investment in the Fund. Readers are cautioned that the risk factors identified below and elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum and the discussion thereof are not exhaustive. Many risk factors are beyond the Investment Manager's control and each contributes to the possibility that the Fund's investment objective will not be met or that the Fund's performance may be materially different from those expressed or implied herein.

Prospective investors should read this entire Offering Memorandum and consult with their legal, financial and other professional advisors before making a decision to invest in the Fund.

Speculative Investment

The Fund (including the Partnership through its investment in the Master Fund) is highly speculative and an investment in the Fund entails substantial risks. The Fund is not intended as a complete investment program. The Fund is intended only for sophisticated persons who are able to bear the economic risk of the loss of their entire investment and who have a limited need for liquidity in their investment.

General Economic and Market Conditions

The success of the Fund's activities may be affected by general economic and market conditions, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, economic uncertainty, changes in laws and national and international political circumstances. These factors may affect the level and volatility of securities prices and the liquidity of the Fund's investments. Unexpected volatility or illiquidity may impair the Fund's profitability or result in losses.

Foreign Market Exposure

The Fund will, at any time, include securities established in jurisdictions outside Canada and the United States. Although most of such issuers will be subject to uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards comparable to those applicable to similar Canadian and U.S. issuers, some issuers may not be subject to such standards and, as a result, there may be less publicly available information about such issuers than a Canadian or U.S. issuer. Other risks include the application of foreign tax law, changes in governmental administration or economic or monetary policy, and the effect of local market conditions on the availability of public information. Investments in foreign markets carry the potential exposure to the risk of political upheaval, acts of terrorism and war, all of which could have an adverse impact on the value of such securities.

Foreign Currency Exposure

Securities included in the Fund may be valued in or have exposure to currencies other than the U.S. dollar and, accordingly, the Net Asset Value of a Class will, when measured in U.S. dollars, be affected by fluctuations in the value of such currencies relative to the U.S. dollar. However, the Investment Manager may hedge the U.S. dollar exposure to the foreign currency in whole or in part. There can be no assurance that gains or losses on currency hedging transactions will be matched in timing or characterization with losses and gains on the securities valued in foreign currencies in which the Fund invests.

Nature of investments

The Investment Manager has broad discretion in making investments for the Fund. Investments will generally consist of securities and other financial instruments in the financial services universe and other assets that may be affected by business, financial market or legal uncertainties. There can be no assurance that the Investment Manager will correctly evaluate the nature and magnitude of the various factors that could affect the value of and return on investments. Prices of investments may be volatile, and a variety of factors that are inherently difficult to predict, such as domestic or international economic and political developments, may significantly affect the results of the Fund's activities and the value of its investments. In addition, the value of the Fund's portfolio may fluctuate as the general level of interest rates fluctuates. No guarantee or representation is made that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved.

Changes in Investment Strategy

The Investment Manager may alter the Fund's investment objective, strategies and restrictions without prior approval of the Limited Partners if the Investment Manager determines that such changes are in the best interests of the Fund, subject to providing at least 60 days' prior written notice to Limited Partners of any changes therein and in such case, providing Limited Partners with the right to redeem their Canadian Fund Units then held.

Small to Medium Capitalization Companies

The Fund may invest a portion of its assets in the securities of companies and other issuers with small-to medium-sized market capitalizations. While the Investment Manager believes these investments often provide significant potential for appreciation, those stocks, particularly smaller-capitalization stocks, involve higher risks in some respects than do investments in securities of larger issuers. For example, due to thin trading in the securities of some small-capitalization issuers, an investment in these securities may be more illiquid than securities of larger capitalization issuers.

Special Situations

The Fund may invest in issuers involved in (or the target of) acquisition attempts or tender offers or in issuers involved in or undergoing work-outs, liquidations, spin-offs, reorganizations, bankruptcies or other catalytic changes or similar transactions. In any investment opportunity involving any such type of special situation, there exists the risk that the contemplated transaction either will be unsuccessful, will take considerable time or will result in a distribution of cash or a new security the value of which will be less than the purchase price to the Fund of the security or other financial instrument in respect of which such distribution is received. Similarly, if an anticipated transaction does not in fact occur, the Fund may be required to sell its investment at a loss. Because there is substantial uncertainty concerning the outcome of transactions involving financially troubled issuers in which the Fund may invest, there is a potential risk of loss by the Fund of its entire investment in such issuers. In connection with such transactions (or otherwise), the Fund may purchase securities on a when-issued basis, which means that delivery and payment take place sometime after the date of the commitment to purchase and is often conditioned upon the occurrence of a subsequent event, such as approval and consummation of a merger, reorganization or debt restructuring. The purchase price or interest rate receivable with respect to a when-issued security can be fixed when the Fund enters into the commitment. Such securities are subject to changes in market value prior to their delivery.

Non-Canadian Securities

The Fund may invest in securities of non-Canadian governments and issuers and which are not denominated in Canadian dollars, or in options on such non-Canadian securities. Investing in securities of non-Canadian governments and issuers that are generally denominated in non-Canadian currencies and utilization of options on non-Canadian securities involves certain considerations comprising both risks and opportunities not typically associated with investing in securities of the Canadian government or Canadian issuers. These considerations include changes in exchange rates and exchange control regulations, political and social instability, expropriation, imposition of foreign taxes, less liquid markets and less available information than is generally the case in Canada, higher transaction costs, foreign government restrictions, less government supervision of exchanges, brokers and issuers, greater risks associated with counterparties and settlement, difficulty in enforcing contractual obligations, lack of uniform accounting and auditing standards and greater price volatility.

Short Sales

The Fund may engage in short sales of securities. Short sales can, in certain circumstances, substantially increase the impact of adverse price movements on the Fund's portfolio. A short sale involves the risk of a theoretically unlimited increase in the market price of the particular investment sold short, which could result in an inability to cover the short position and a theoretically unlimited loss. There can be no assurance that securities necessary to cover a short position will be available for purchase. There is a risk that the securities borrowed by the Fund in connection with a short sale would need to be returned to the securities lender on short notice. If such request for return of securities occurs at a time when other short sellers of the subject security are receiving similar requests, a "short squeeze" can occur, wherein the Fund might be compelled, at the most disadvantageous time, to replace borrowed securities previously sold short with purchases on the open market, possibly at prices significantly in excess of the proceeds received earlier.

Short selling is a part of the Fund's investment strategy; however, it is possible that regulatory, self-regulatory or legislative action may be taken by governments, regulators or other authoritative bodies around the world that may restrict the ability of the Fund to enter into short sales or cause the Fund to publicly disclose or report short positions or have other compliance-related consequences on the Fund and/or the Investment Manager. Short sale reporting obligations may result in all or a portion of the Fund's portfolio being open to public and regulatory scrutiny. Such public reporting (and the frequency thereof) could provide competitors and others insight into the Fund's investment strategy and portfolio composition, and may provide competitors and others the ability to attempt to replicate or reverse-engineer the Fund's portfolio.

Any prohibition or limitation on the Fund's ability to undertake short sales of securities and other financial instruments in any geographic region could materially adversely affect the Fund's portfolio, its investment strategy and the likelihood of achieving its investment objective. Any such regulatory, self-regulatory or legislative action may also cause the Fund to incur additional costs, which may be substantial, in complying with such laws and rules and may result in greater operational risk.

Derivatives

To the extent that the Fund invests in swaps, derivative or synthetic instruments, repurchase agreements or other over-the-counter transactions or, in certain circumstances, non-U.S. securities, the Fund may take a credit risk with regard to parties with whom it trades and may also bear the risk of settlement default. These risks may differ materially from those entailed in exchange-traded transactions that generally are backed by clearing organization guarantees, daily marking-to-market and settlement, and segregation and minimum capital requirements applicable to intermediaries. Transactions entered directly between two counterparties generally do not benefit from such protections and expose the parties to the risk of counterparty default. It is expected that all securities and other assets deposited with custodians or brokers will be clearly identified as being assets (directly or indirectly) of the Fund, and hence the Fund should not be exposed to a credit risk with regard to such parties. However, it may not always be possible to achieve this segregation, and there may be practical or time problems associated with enforcing rights to its assets in the case of an insolvency of any such party.

There has been an international effort to increase the stability of the over-the-counter derivatives market in response to the recent financial crisis; however, the overall impact of these efforts remains unclear.

Options

The purchase or sale of an option involves the payment or receipt of a premium by the investor and the corresponding right or obligation, as the case may be, to either purchase or sell the underlying security, commodity or other instrument for a specific price at a certain time or during a certain period. Purchasing options involves the risk that the underlying instrument will not change price in the manner expected, so that the investor loses its premium. Selling options involves potentially greater risk because the investor is exposed to the extent of the actual price movement in the underlying security rather than only the premium payment received (which could result in a potentially unlimited loss). Over-the-counter options also involve counterparty solvency risk.

Convertible Securities

The Fund may invest in convertible securities, securities that may be exchanged or converted into a predetermined number of the Issuer's underlying shares or the shares of another issuer or that are indexed to an unmanaged market index at the option of the holder during a specified time period. Convertible securities may take the form of convertible preferred stock, convertible bonds or debentures, stock purchase warrants, zero-coupon bonds or liquid-yield option notes, stock index notes, mandatories, or a combination of the features of these securities. Prior to conversion, convertible securities have the same general characteristics as non-convertible debt securities. As with all debt securities, the market value of convertible securities tends to decline as interest rates increase and, conversely, tends to increase as interest rates decline. Convertible securities, however, also appreciate when the underlying common stock appreciates, and conversely, depreciate when the underlying common stock depreciates.

Use of Leverage

As noted in Section 3 – “Investment Program” above, the Fund may utilize leverage. The use of leverage may result in the Fund controlling substantially more assets than the Fund has equity. Leverage increases the Fund's returns if the Fund earns a greater return on investments purchased with borrowed funds than the Fund's cost of borrowing such funds. However, the use of leverage exposes the Fund to additional levels of risk, including (i) greater losses from investments than would otherwise have been the case had the Fund not borrowed to make the investments, (ii) margin calls or interim margin requirements which may force premature liquidations of investment positions and (iii) losses on investments where the investment fails to earn a return that equals or exceeds the Fund's cost of borrowing such funds. In the event of a sudden, precipitous drop in value of the Fund's assets, the Fund might not be able to liquidate assets quickly enough to repay its borrowings, further magnifying its losses.

In an unsettled credit environment, the Investment Manager may find it difficult or impossible to obtain leverage for the Fund. In such event, the Fund could find it difficult to implement its strategy. In addition, any leverage obtained, if terminated on short notice by the lender, could result in the Investment Manager being forced to unwind the Fund's positions quickly and at prices below what the Investment Manager deems to be fair value for such positions.

Lack of Diversification

The Fund's portfolio will primarily be invested in securities and other financial instruments and may not be widely diversified among sectors, industries, issuers, types of securities or geographic areas. Accordingly, the Fund's portfolio may be subject to more rapid change in value than would be the case if the Fund were required to maintain a wide diversification.

Convergence Risk

The Fund may pursue relative value strategies by taking long positions in securities the Investment Manager believes to be undervalued and short positions in securities believed to be overvalued. In the event that the perceived mispricing underlying the Fund's trading positions were to fail to converge toward, or were to diverge further from, the Investment Manager's expectations, the Fund may incur a loss.

Portfolio Turnover

The investment strategy of the Fund may require the Investment Manager to actively trade the Fund's portfolio, and as a result, turnover and brokerage commission expenses of the Fund may significantly exceed those of other investment entities of comparable size.

Counterparty Risk

To the extent that the Fund invests in swaps, "synthetic" or derivative instruments, repurchase agreements, forward contracts, certain types of options or other customized financial instruments, or, in certain circumstances, non-Canadian securities, the Fund takes the risk of non-performance by the other party to the contract. This risk may include credit risk of the counterparty and the risk of settlement default. This risk may differ materially from those entailed in exchange-traded transactions that generally are supported by guarantees of clearing organizations, daily marking-to-market and settlement, and segregation and minimum capital requirements applicable to intermediaries. Transactions entered directly between two counterparties generally do not benefit from such protections and expose the parties to the risk of counterparty default.

Brokerage and Custodial Risk

There are risks involved in dealing with the custodians or prime brokers who settle the Fund's trades. The Fund maintains custody accounts with its prime brokers and primary custodians, BMO Nesbitt Burns (the "Prime Brokers"). The Fund may engage additional brokers and custodians from time to time, as the General Partner determines to be necessary or advisable. Although the Fund will monitor its Prime Brokers and believes that they are appropriate custodians, there is no guarantee that the Prime Brokers, or any other custodian that the Fund may use from time to time, will not become bankrupt or insolvent. While there are laws that seek to protect customer property in the event of a bankruptcy, insolvency, failure, or liquidation of a broker-dealer, there is no certainty that, in the event of a failure of a broker-dealer that has custody of Fund assets, the Fund would not incur losses due to its assets being unavailable for a period of time, the ultimate receipt of less than full recovery of its assets, or both.

The Fund and/or the Prime Brokers may appoint sub-custodians in certain non-Canadian jurisdictions to hold the assets of the Fund. The Prime Brokers may not be responsible for cash or assets which are held by sub-custodians in certain non-Canadian jurisdictions, nor for any losses suffered by the Fund as a result of the bankruptcy or insolvency of any such sub-custodian. The Fund may therefore have a potential exposure on the default of any sub-custodian and, as a result, many of the protections that would normally be provided to a Fund by a custodian may not be available to the Fund. Under certain circumstances, including certain transactions where the Fund's assets are pledged as collateral for leverage from a non-broker-dealer custodian or a non-broker-dealer affiliate of the Prime Brokers, or where the Fund's assets are held at a non-Canadian custodian, the securities and other assets deposited with the custodian or broker may not be clearly identified as being assets of the Fund and the Fund could be exposed to a credit risk with regard to such parties. Custody services in certain non-Canadian jurisdictions remain undeveloped and, accordingly, there is a transaction and custody risk of dealing in certain non-Canadian jurisdictions. Given the undeveloped state of regulations on custodial activities and bankruptcy, insolvency, or mismanagement in certain non-Canadian jurisdictions, the ability of the Fund to recover assets held by a sub-custodian in the event of the sub-custodian's bankruptcy or insolvency could be in doubt, as the Fund may be subject to significantly less favorable laws than many of the protections that would be available under Canadian laws. In addition, there may be practical or time problems associated with enforcing the Fund's rights to its assets in the case of a bankruptcy or insolvency of any such party.

Lack of Liquidity of Fund Investments

Fund assets may, at any given time, include securities and other financial instruments or obligations that are thinly-traded or for which no market exists and/or which are restricted as to their transferability under applicable securities laws. The sale of any such investments may be possible only at substantial discounts, and it may be extremely difficult to accurately value any such investments.

Limited Transfer and Rights

The resale or transfer of Canadian Fund Units is subject to restrictions imposed by the Partnership Agreement, including consent by the General Partner, and applicable securities legislation. Transfers of Canadian Fund Units will be permitted only with the written consent of the General Partner. Redemptions of Canadian Fund Units are subject to restrictions imposed by the Partnership Agreement as to the timing and fulfillment of redemption requests for Canadian Fund Units. See Section 8 – “Summary of the Limited Partnership Agreement”. Consequently, holders of Canadian Fund Units may not be able to liquidate their investment in a timely manner and the Canadian Fund Units may not be readily accepted as collateral for a loan.

Performance Allocation

The payment at the Master Fund level of a percentage of the Fund’s net profits to the Incentive LP, which is an affiliate of the Investment Manager, may cause the Investment Manager to make investments that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case if this allocation were not made. Since the Performance Allocation is calculated on a basis that includes unrealized appreciation of assets, such allocation may be greater than if it were based solely on realized gains.

Limited Operating History for the Fund

Although persons involved in the management of the Fund and the service providers to the Fund have had long experience in their respective fields of specialization, the Fund has a limited operating and performance history upon which prospective investors can evaluate the Fund's likely performance. Investors should be aware that the past performance by those involved in the investment management of the Fund should not be considered as an indication of future results.

Dependence on the Investment Team

The success of the Fund depends in substantial part on the skill and expertise of the Investment Manager’s investment team. There can be no assurance that any individual will continue to be affiliated with the Investment Manager throughout the life of the Fund or will continue to be available to manage the Fund. The unavailability of members of the investment team to manage the Fund could have a material adverse effect on the Fund.

No Right to Control the Fund’s Operations

The Fund will be managed exclusively by the General Partner and the Investment Manager. Limited Partners will not make decisions with respect to the management, disposition or other realization of any investment, the day-to-day operations of the Fund, or any other decisions regarding the Fund’s business and affairs. Limited Partners should expect to rely solely on the ability of the General Partner and the Investment Manager with respect to the Fund’s operations. An investment in the Fund should be regarded as a passive investment.

Fees and Expenses

The Fund is obligated to pay fees, brokerage commissions, legal, accounting, filing and other expenses regardless of whether it realizes profits.

Recourse to the Fund’s Assets

The assets of the Fund, including any investments made and any capital held by the Fund, are available to satisfy all liabilities and obligations of the Fund. If the Fund becomes subject to a liability, parties seeking to have the liability satisfied may have recourse to the Fund’s assets generally and not be limited to any particular asset, such as the investment giving rise to the liability.

Indemnification

The Fund will be required to indemnify the General Partner, the Investment Manager, and each other Indemnified Person for liabilities incurred in connection with the management of the Fund’s activities, except under certain circumstances. Such liabilities may be material and may have an adverse effect on the returns to the Limited Partners. The indemnification obligation of the Fund would be payable from the assets of the Fund. See Section 8 - “Summary of the Limited Partnership Agreement”.

Tax Liability

The Fund is not required to distribute its income in cash. If the Fund has taxable income for Canadian federal income tax purposes for a fiscal year, such income may be distributed to Limited Partners in accordance with the provisions of the Partnership Agreement. Limited Partners will be required to include all such distributions in computing their income for tax purposes, even if that cash may not have been distributed to such Limited Partners. Cash distributions to a particular Limited Partner may not correspond to the economic gains and losses that such Limited Partner may actually experience in the same period.

Portfolio Valuation

Valuations of the Fund’s investment assets, which will affect the Fund’s Net Asset Value, the amount of the Investment Management Fee payable to the Investment Manager and Performance Allocation to the Incentive LP, may involve uncertainties and determinations based on judgments. Third-party pricing information may at times not be available regarding the Fund’s investments. The Investment Manager may have a limited ability to obtain accurate market quotations for purposes of valuing such investments, which may require the Investment Manager to estimate, in accordance with its established valuation policies, the value of the Fund’s investments on a Valuation Date, and the Investment Manager is not required to obtain an independent appraisal of such investments. If the Investment Manager’s valuation should prove to be incorrect, the value of the Fund’s investments could be adversely affected.

The Fund may have some of its assets in investments that, by their very nature, may be extremely difficult to value accurately. To the extent that the value designated by the Fund to any such investment differs from its actual value, the Net Asset Value per Unit may be understated or overstated, as the case may be. In light of the foregoing, there is a risk that a Limited Partner who redeems all or part of his or her Units while the Fund holds such investments will be paid an amount less than such Limited Partner would otherwise be paid if the actual value of such investments is higher than the value designated by the Fund. Similarly, there is a risk that such Limited Partner might, in effect, be overpaid if the actual value of such investments is lower than the value designated by the Fund. In addition, there is risk that an investment in the Fund by a new Limited Partner (or an additional investment by an existing Limited Partner) could dilute the value of such investments for the other Limited Partners if the actual value of such investments is higher than the value designated by the Fund. Furthermore, there is a risk that a new Limited Partner (or an existing Limited Partner that makes an additional investment) could pay more to purchase Units than he or she might otherwise be required to pay if the actual value of such investments is lower than the value designated by the Fund. The Fund does not intend to adjust the Net Asset Value per Unit of any class of Canadian Fund Units or Master Fund Units retroactively.

Finally, the Fund may not be able to convert its investments to cash at a fair market price when it needs to or it may bear additional costs in doing so.

Effects of Substantial Withdrawals

Substantial withdrawals by Limited Partners or any Feeder Vehicle within a short period of time could require the Fund to arrange for the Fund’s positions to be liquidated more rapidly than would otherwise be desirable, which could (i) adversely affect the value of the remaining Limited Partners’ interests in the Fund, (ii) cause the Fund to utilize leverage in order to satisfy redemption requests, which could cause the remaining Limited Partners to bear the costs of such leverage, or (iii) result in the General Partner choosing to terminate the Fund. In addition, regardless of the period of time in which withdrawals occur, the resulting reduction in the Fund’s assets could make it more difficult to generate a positive rate of return or recoup losses due to a reduced equity base.

Side Letters

The Partnership, the Master Fund, any other Feeder Vehicle, the Investment Manager or the General Partner may, from time to time, without the approval of or notice to any Limited Partner, enter into agreements (“Other Agreements”) with certain prospective or existing Limited Partners or other investors in the Fund whereby such Limited Partners or other investors may be subject to terms and conditions that are more advantageous than those set forth in this Offering Memorandum. For example, such terms and conditions may provide for special redemption rights, rebates or reductions in fees to be paid by the Limited Partner or other investors, rights to receive reports from the Fund on a more frequent basis or that include information not provided to other Limited Partners or investors (including, without limitation, more detailed information regarding portfolio positions) and such other rights as may be negotiated with such Limited Partners or other investors. Any such Other Agreements will be solely at the discretion of the Investment Manager or the General Partner and may, among other things, be based on the size of the Limited Partner's or other investor's investment in the Fund, an agreement by such Limited Partner or other investor to maintain a minimum investment in the Fund for a specified period of time, or other similar commitment by the Limited Partner or other investor.

Liability for Return of Distributions

Generally, the Limited Partners do not have personal liability for the obligations of the Partnership. However, under applicable law, Limited Partners could be required to return distributions previously made by the Partnership if it is determined that such distributions were wrongfully made or in certain other circumstances under the terms of the Partnership Agreement or applicable laws. Where a Limited Partner has received the return of all or part of the amount contributed to the Partnership, the Limited Partner is nevertheless liable to the Partnership or, where the Partnership is dissolved, to its creditors for any amount, not in excess of the amount returned with interest, necessary to discharge the liabilities of the Partnership to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims otherwise arose before the return of the contribution. Additionally, Limited Partners may have to return all or a portion of distributions made to them to the extent the Partnership has an obligation to withhold any amounts from such distribution for tax purposes.

Possible Loss of Limited Liability

Under applicable law, a limited partner benefits from limited liability unless, in addition to exercising rights and powers as a limited partner, such limited partner takes part in the control of the business of a limited partnership of which such limited partner is a partner. A Limited Partner is liable for such Limited Partner's subscription price, pro rata share of undistributed income retained by the Partnership and for any portion of the subscription price returned to such Limited Partner by the Partnership. In order that the liability of the Limited Partners be limited to the extent described, certain legal requirements under the Partnership Act and other applicable provincial legislation must be satisfied.

The limitation of liability conferred under the Partnership Act may be ineffective outside Ontario except to the extent it is given extra territorial recognition or effect by the laws of other jurisdictions. There may also be requirements to be satisfied in each jurisdiction to maintain limited liability. If limited liability is lost, Limited Partners may be considered to be general partners (and therefore be subject to unlimited liability) in such jurisdiction by creditors and others having claims against the Partnership.

Recourse to the Partnership's Assets

The Partnership's assets, including any investments made by the Partnership and any capital held by the Partnership, are available to satisfy all liabilities and other obligations of the Partnership. If the Partnership itself becomes subject to a liability, parties seeking to have the liability satisfied may have recourse to the Partnership's assets generally and may not be limited to any particular asset, such as the investment giving rise to the liability.

Legal Counsel

Although AUM Law Professional Corporation ("AUM Law") and Conyers Dill & Pearman (Cayman) Limited ("CDP") participated in the preparation of this Offering Memorandum and may from time to time advise the Fund with respect to the law of Ontario, Canada and the Cayman Islands, respectively, AUM Law and CDP have not independently verified any factual assertions made in this Offering Memorandum and are not responsible for the Fund's compliance with its investment program or applicable law. No person should invest in the Fund as a result of AUM Law's or CDP's participation in the preparation of this Offering Memorandum or their representation of the Fund. AUM Law, CDP, the Investment Manager, the Partnership and the Master Fund urge each prospective investor to consult with its own legal, accounting, business, investment, pension and tax advisors to determine the appropriateness and consequences of an investment in the Fund and arrive at an independent evaluation of the merits of such investment. Prospective investors are not to construe to contents of this Offering Memorandum as legal, accounting, business, investment, pension or tax advice.

Tax Risks

Legal, tax and regulatory changes to laws or administrative practice could adversely affect the Fund. Interpretation of law or administrative practice may affect the characterization of the Fund's earnings as capital gains or income, which may increase the level of tax borne by the investor. The Master Fund may receive dividends on shares held in foreign companies and such dividends may be subject to foreign withholding taxes. Changes to foreign tax laws could adversely affect the net amount of dividends received by the Master Fund.

Pursuant to the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, as amended or reenacted from time to time (“FATCA”), the Fund will be required to comply (or be deemed compliant) with reporting requirements designed to inform the U.S. Department of the Treasury of U.S.-owned foreign investment accounts. Failure to comply (or be deemed compliant) with these requirements may subject these entities to U.S. withholding taxes (at a 30% rate) on certain U.S.-sourced income and gross proceeds (“withholdable payments”). Pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement (“IGA”) between the United States and Canada, the Partnership may be deemed compliant, and therefore not subject to the withholding tax, if it identifies and reports U.S. taxpayer information directly to the CRA. Similarly, pursuant to an IGA between the United States and the Cayman Islands, the Master Fund may be deemed compliant, and therefore not subject to the withholding tax, if it identifies and reports U.S. taxpayer information directly to the Cayman Islands government. Limited Partners may be requested to provide additional information to the Partnership or its agents to enable the Partnership and the Master Fund to satisfy their obligations. The CRA will then exchange the information with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service pursuant to the provisions of the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Treaty. If the Partnership or the Master Fund are unable to comply with their obligations under the respective IGA, the imposition of a 30% U.S. withholding tax on “withholdable payments” made to the Partnership or Master Fund, as applicable, as well as penalties imposed under local law (including, in respect of the Partnership) the Tax Act, may affect the Net Asset Value of the Partnership and may result in reduced investment returns to Limited Partners.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Tax Act (the “CRS Provisions”) that implement the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Common Reporting Standard (the “Common Reporting Standard”), the Partnership is required to have a procedure in place to identify accounts held by residents of foreign countries (other than the U.S.) or by certain entities the “controlling persons” of which are resident in a foreign country (other than the U.S.) and to report required information about any such accounts to the CRA. Such information would be exchanged by the CRA on a reciprocal, bilateral basis with the countries that have agreed to a bilateral information exchange with Canada under the Common Reporting Standard in which the account holders or such controlling persons are resident. Limited Partners will be required to provide certain information regarding their investment in the Partnership for the purposes of such information exchange.

Failure to provide requested information or (if applicable) satisfy its own FATCA and CRS obligations may subject an investor to liability for any resulting foreign withholding taxes, foreign tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the investor’s interest in the Canadian Fund Units.

The administrative costs of compliance with FATCA and CRS may also cause an increase in the operating expenses of the Partnership and the Master Fund, further reducing returns to Limited Partners. Limited Partners should consult their own tax advisers regarding the possible implications of this legislation on them and their investments.

No Review by Regulatory Authorities

This Offering Memorandum constitutes a private offering of the Canadian Fund Units in the Offering Jurisdictions pursuant to prospectus exemptions under the securities laws of Canadian provinces and territories. This Offering Memorandum is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, a prospectus, advertisement, or public offering of Canadian Fund Units. Neither this Offering Memorandum or any other material relating to this Offering has been reviewed or considered by the Ontario Securities Commission, CRA, or any other governmental or regulatory authority.

Business and Regulatory Risks of Investment Funds

The domestic and international regulatory environment for investment funds is evolving, and changes in the regulation of investment funds may adversely affect the value of investments held by the Fund and the ability of the Fund to obtain the leverage it might otherwise obtain or to pursue its trading strategies. In addition, securities and futures markets are subject to comprehensive statutes, regulations and margin requirements. Regulators and self-regulatory organizations and exchanges are authorized to take extraordinary actions in the event of market emergencies. The regulation of derivative transactions and funds that engage in such transactions is an evolving area of law and is subject to modification by governments, self-regulatory organizations and judicial actions. The effect of any future regulatory change on the Fund could be substantial and adverse.

Future Regulation

Growing concern about the lack of regulation of private investment partnerships and hedge funds has led to the proposal of various state, provincial and federal laws and regulations in the U.S., Canada and other jurisdictions regarding investment partnerships and hedge funds and may in the future lead to additional such proposals. Such regulatory proposals, or any future proposals, if adopted could adversely affect the Fund, including its business, financial condition and prospects.

16. CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Certain Canadian Federal Tax Considerations

The following is, as of the date hereof, a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations with respect to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Canadian Fund Units to an investor who, for the purposes of the Tax Act, is a Canadian resident, deals at arm's length with the Partnership, is the initial investor in the Canadian Fund Units and will hold Canadian Fund Units as capital property and has invested for his or her own benefit and not as a trustee of a trust. The determination of whether the Canadian Fund Units are capital property to a holder will depend, in part, on the holder's particular circumstances. Generally, Canadian Fund Units will be considered to be capital property to a holder if acquired by him or her for investment purposes and not acquired or held in the course of carrying on a business of trading or dealing in securities or as part of an adventure in the nature of trade.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act, the regulations thereunder and the published administrative practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA") and also takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by the Minister of Finance (Canada), prior to the date hereof (the "Proposals"). Except for the foregoing, this summary does not take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, regulatory, administrative or judicial action. Furthermore, this summary does not take into account provincial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations. There can be no assurance that any Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, or at all.

This summary is based on the assumption that the Partnership is not a "tax shelter" as that term is defined in the Tax Act and an investment in the Partnership is not a tax shelter investment for the purposes of the Tax Act. This summary further assumes that at all times, all members of the Partnership are resident in Canada for the purpose of the Tax Act and that they will comply in all respects with the restrictions on investors pursuant to the Limited Partnership Agreement. This summary assumes that not more than 50% of the Canadian Fund Units are held by financial institutions and that investments in the Partnership will not be listed or traded on a stock exchange or other public market.

The income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Canadian Fund Units vary according to the status of the investor, the province or territory in which the investor resides or carries on business and, generally, the investor's own particular circumstances. The following description of income tax matters is, therefore, of a general nature only and is not intended to constitute advice to any particular investor. The income tax consequences described in this summary are based on the assumptions that an investor does not undertake or arrange any transaction relating to his or her Canadian Fund Units, other than those referred to in this Offering Memorandum, and that none of the transactions relating to the investor's Canadian Fund Units and referred to in this Offering Memorandum is undertaken or arranged primarily to obtain a tax benefit other than those specifically described herein. Each investor should seek independent advice regarding the tax consequences of investing in Canadian Fund Units, based upon the investor's own particular circumstances.

(a) Computation of Income or Loss

The Fund is not itself a taxable entity. However, the Partnership is required to compute its income (or loss) in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act as if it were a separate person resident in Canada. The fiscal year of the Partnership ends on December 31 in each calendar year.

Each Limited Partner will generally be required to include, in computing his or her income or loss for tax purposes for a taxation year, his or her share of the income or loss (including taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses) allocated to such Limited Partner for each fiscal year of the Partnership for such year, whether or not he or she has received or will receive a distribution from the Partnership. Income and loss of the Partnership for tax purposes will be allocated to Limited Partners in accordance with the provisions of the Limited Partnership Agreement as described under "Allocation of Net Profits or Losses". The Fund is not required to make distributions to Limited Partners in any year, even when income will be allocated to Limited Partners for purposes of the Tax Act. As a result, Limited Partners may be required to pay tax on such income allocation even though the Limited Partner has not received a cash distribution. This may also be the case where an allocation of income is made to a Limited Partner who transferred Canadian Fund Units before the end of the year. The Fund will furnish to each Limited Partner such information as is required by the CRA to assist in declaring the Limited Partner's share of the Partnership's income or loss. However, the responsibility for filing any required tax returns and reporting his or her share of the income or loss of the Partnership falls solely upon each Limited Partner.

In general, every member of a partnership must, in accordance with the regulations under the Tax Act, file an information return in prescribed form which contains specified information for each taxation year of the partnership. The General Partner has agreed to file the necessary information return, which will be deemed to have been made by each member of the Partnership.

The income or loss of the Partnership will be computed as if the Partnership were a separate person resident in Canada. The Partnership will generally be required to include, in computing its income or loss for tax purposes, its share of the income or loss (including taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses) allocated to it by the Master Fund for each fiscal year of the Master Fund for such year, whether or not the Partnership has received or will receive a distribution from the Master Fund. In computing the income or loss of the Partnership, deductions will be claimed in respect of all expenses of the Partnership in accordance with and to the extent permitted under the Tax Act.

In general, a Limited Partner's share of any income or loss of the Partnership from any source or from sources in a particular place will be treated as if it were income or loss of the Limited Partner from that source or from sources in that particular place and any provisions of the Tax Act applicable to that type of income or loss will apply to the Limited Partner.

Subject to the "at-risk rules" discussed below, a Limited Partner's share of the non-capital losses, if any, of the Partnership for any fiscal year may be applied against his or her income from any other source to reduce net income for the relevant taxation year and, to the extent it exceeds other income for that year, carried back three years and forward 20 years against taxable income of such other years. A Limited Partner's share of the allowable capital losses of the Partnership may be applied only against taxable capital gains (discussed below) and may be carried back three years or forward indefinitely.

The Tax Act provides that, notwithstanding the income or loss allocation provisions of the Limited Partnership Agreement, any losses of the Partnership from an adventure or concern in the nature of trade or from a property allocated to a Limited Partner will be deductible by such Limited Partner in computing his or her income for a taxation year only to the extent that his or her share of the loss does not exceed his or her "at-risk amount" in respect of the Partnership at the end of the year. In general terms, the "at-risk amount" of a Limited Partner in respect of the Partnership at a particular time is (i) the adjusted cost base of his or her Canadian Fund Units at that time plus (ii) if the particular time is at the end of the fiscal period of the Partnership, his or her share of the income of the Partnership for the fiscal year, less the aggregate of (iii) all amounts owing by the Limited Partner to the Partnership or to a person with whom the Partnership does not deal at arm's length and (iv) subject to certain exceptions, any amount or benefit to which the Limited Partner is entitled to receive where the amount or benefit is intended to protect the Limited Partner from any loss he or she may sustain by virtue of being a member of the Partnership or holding or disposing of Canadian Fund Units.

A Limited Partner's share of any Fund loss that is not deductible by him in the year because of the "at-risk rules" is considered to be his or her "limited partnership loss" in respect of the Partnership for that year. Such "limited partnership loss" may be deducted by him in any subsequent taxation year against any income for that year to the extent that his or her "at-risk amount" at the end of the Partnership's fiscal year ending in that year exceeds his or her share of any loss of the Partnership for that fiscal year.

(b) Disposition and Redemption of Canadian Fund Units

Upon the redemption or other actual or deemed disposition of a Canadian Fund Unit by a Limited Partner, a capital gain (or a capital loss) will generally be realized to the extent that the proceeds of disposition of the Canadian Fund Unit net of any costs of disposition exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base to the Limited Partner of the Canadian Fund Unit. The portion of capital gains included in computing income ("taxable capital gains") and the portion of capital losses ("allowable capital losses") deductible from taxable capital gains is generally one-half. The unused portion of an allowable capital loss may be carried back three years or forward indefinitely and may only be used against taxable capital gains, subject to detailed rules in the Tax Act. A "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may be subject to an additional refundable tax of 10 2/3% in respect of certain investment income including an amount in respect of taxable capital gains.

In general, the adjusted cost base of a Canadian Fund Unit to a Limited Partner is the subscription price of the Canadian Fund Unit plus the Limited Partner's share of any income of the Partnership (including the full amount of any capital gains) for any previously completed fiscal periods, less the Limited Partner's share of the losses of the Partnership (including the full amount of any capital losses) for any fiscal period ending before that time (except where any portion of such losses were included in his or her "limited partnership loss" in respect of the Partnership as such losses will reduce the adjusted cost base of his or her Canadian Fund Units only to the extent they have been previously deducted) and any distributions made to the Limited Partner by the Partnership. The adjusted cost base of each Canadian Fund Unit will be the average of the adjusted cost base of all Canadian Fund Units held by a Limited Partner. If the adjusted cost base of a Limited Partner's Canadian Fund Units becomes a negative amount such negative amount as at the end of a fiscal year of the Partnership will be deemed to be a capital gain realized by the Limited Partner and the adjusted cost base will subsequently be nil. Although the Partnership may incur losses which exceed the aggregate amount of capital invested by the Limited Partners, as a result of the limitation in deducting such losses under the "at-risk" rules, a Limited Partner will not normally have a negative adjusted cost base for his or her Canadian Fund Units.

A redemption of Canadian Fund Units will generally be treated as a disposition for purposes of the Tax Act. Where Canadian Fund Units are redeemed by a Limited Partner during the course of the year or are acquired during the course of the year, the General Partner may, but is not required to, adopt an allocation policy intended to allocate income and loss in such manner as to account for Canadian Fund Units which are purchased or redeemed throughout such fiscal year. To such end, any person who was a Limited Partner at any time during the fiscal year but who has redeemed or transferred some or all of the Canadian Fund Units before the last day of such fiscal year may have income or losses of the Partnership for such year allocated to him or her. A Limited Partner who is considering disposing of Canadian Fund Units during a fiscal period of the Partnership should obtain specific tax advice.

The Cayman Islands Taxation

The Cayman Islands currently levy no taxes on profits, income, gains or appreciation of the Master Fund. No withholding taxes are levied in the Cayman Islands on remittances that may be made from the Master Fund to its limited partners by way of distributions or redemptions, or a liquidation of the Master Fund. The Master Fund, as an exempted limited partnership, has applied for a fifty-year undertaking under the Exempted Limited Partnership Law (Revised) of the Cayman Islands. Such undertaking provides that from the date of such undertaking to the date on which each such undertaking terminates: (a) no law that is enacted in the Cayman Islands that imposes any tax to be levied on profits or income or gains or appreciation will apply to it, or its operations; and (b) such tax or any tax in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax will not be payable on its shares, interests, debentures or other obligations. An annual registration fee will be payable by the Master Fund to the Cayman Islands Government.

General Considerations

The receipt of dividends (if any) by limited partners of the Master Fund, the redemption or transfer of partnership interests of the Master Fund and any distribution on a winding-up of the Master Fund may result in a tax liability for the limited partners of the Master Fund according to the tax regime applicable in their various countries of residence, citizenship or domicile. Limited partners of the Master Fund resident in or citizens of certain countries which have anti-offshore fund legislation may have a current liability to tax on the undistributed income and gains of the Master Fund. The Fund, the General Partner, the Investment Manager and each of the Fund's agents shall have no liability in respect of the individual tax affairs of limited partners of the Master Fund.

Investors should consult their professional advisers on the possible tax, legal, regulatory and other consequences of their applying for, purchasing, holding, selling, exchanging or redeeming interests under the laws of their country of incorporation, establishment, citizenship, residence or domicile.

17. ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

A Canadian Fund Unit is not a "qualified investment" under the Tax Act for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, deferred profit sharing plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans, registered disability savings plans, or tax free savings accounts.

18. GENERAL COMMENTS

The summary set forth herein does not purport to be and should not be construed as a complete description of the Partnership Agreement, the Administration Agreement or the Investment Management Agreement, copies of which will be furnished on request to the Investment Manager. A copy of the Master Fund Partnership Agreement is available upon request from the Investment Manager.

Prospective Investors should be aware of certain anti-money laundering requirements and regulatory considerations, as described below.

Prevention of Money Laundering

In order to comply with applicable legislation aimed at the prevention of money laundering, each Prospective Investor will be required to represent in the Subscription Agreement that, among other things, neither he or she, or any director, officer and beneficial owner of it (unless the entity is specifically exempted), nor any of such person's mother or father, child, spouse or common-law partner, spouse's or common-law partner's mother or father, or brother, sister, half-brother or half-sister, is a "foreign politically exposed person", "domestic politically exposed person", "head of international organization" or a close associate of any of the foregoing, each as defined in the Subscription Agreement (generally, an individual who holds or has ever held certain offices or positions in or on behalf of Canada or a foreign country or an international organization).

Further, each Prospective Investor will be required to acknowledge that the General Partner and/or the Investment Manager may require additional information concerning investors in order to comply with their obligations and each Prospective Investor will agree to provide such additional information. If, as a result of any information or other matter which comes to the Investment Manager's attention, any director, officer or employee of the Investment Manager, or its professional advisers, knows or suspects that an investor is engaged in money laundering, such person is required to report such information or other matter to the Financial Transactions and Reports Analysis Centre of Canada and such report shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by law or otherwise. In addition to the foregoing, if certain persons resident in the Cayman Islands (including the Master Fund) have a suspicion that another person is engaged in criminal conduct, that person is, in certain circumstances, required to report such suspicion pursuant to the anti-money laundering legislation of the Cayman Islands and such report shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by any enactment or otherwise.

The Fund and the Administrator reserve the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity, address and source of funds of the Subscriber. In the event of delay or failure by the Subscriber to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Administrator will refuse to accept the subscription and the subscription monies relating thereto.

The Partnership, or the Administrator on its behalf, may also request verification evidence in respect of a permitted transferee of Canadian Fund Units. If the Prospective Investor or transferee fails to produce, or delays in producing, any evidence required for verification purposes, the Partnership, or the Administrator on its behalf, may refuse to accept the application or to register the relevant transfer (as the case may be). If that happens in the case of a subscription of Canadian Fund Units, any funds received will be returned without interest to the account from which those funds were originally debited.

The Partnership reserves the right to refuse a redemption request from a Limited Partner if:

- (a) the General Partner suspects or is advised that the payment of redemption proceeds to that Limited Partner may result in a breach or violation of any applicable anti-money laundering or other laws or regulations by any person in any relevant jurisdiction; or
- (b) that refusal is considered necessary or appropriate to ensure the compliance by the Partnership or the General Partner with any such laws or regulations in any relevant jurisdiction.

Under no circumstances will payment be made to any party other than the Limited Partner requesting such redemption.

The Master Fund and each Feeder Vehicle will discharge their anti-money laundering obligations by implementing procedures substantially similar to the Partnership insofar as practical and as subject to applicable legislation and regulatory requirements.

Data Protection/Confidentiality

Each subscriber and Limited Partner will also be required to consent to and acknowledge that the Partnership, the Administrator and/or the Investment Manager may disclose to each other, to any regulatory body, to a delegate, agent or any other service provider to the Partnership or the Administrator in any jurisdiction, including those outside of the U.S. or Canada, copies of the subscriber's subscription application and any information concerning the subscriber provided by the subscriber to the Partnership, the Administrator and/or the Investment Manager. Any such disclosure shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed on such person by law or otherwise.

Indirect Collection of Personal Information

By purchasing these Canadian Fund Units, the purchaser acknowledges that certain personal information about the purchaser and certain details of the distribution including the purchaser's name, address, telephone number and price of the securities purchased will be disclosed to certain regulatory authorities, including the Ontario Securities Commission (each, a "Regulator") and that such personal information is being collected indirectly by the applicable Regulators under the authority granted to it in securities legislation for the purpose of administering and enforcing securities legislation. By purchasing these Canadian Fund Units, the purchaser shall be deemed to have authorized such indirect collection of personal information by the applicable Regulator. The contact information for the public official in the local jurisdiction who can answer questions about the Regulator's indirect collection of the information is contained in the Subscription Agreement.

Electronic Communication Consent

The Partnership, the Investment Manager, the Administrator or any agent of the foregoing may communicate with investors (e.g. financial statements, performance reports, manager letters) by using a variety of means including, but not limited to, by telephone, e-mail, password protected Internet website, regular mail and facsimile. A Limited Partner may, at any time, notify the Partnership that it does not wish to receive electronic communication and that it wishes to receive paper communication instead.

19. PROCEDURES TO PURCHASE CANADIAN FUND UNITS

Persons interested in purchasing Canadian Fund Units should inform themselves as to the legal requirements for the purchase of such Canadian Fund Units.

Subscriptions for Canadian Fund Units must be made by completing and executing the Subscription Agreement and by forwarding to the Investment Manager (or its designate) such Subscription Agreement together with a cheque (payable to "IBV Capital Global Value Canadian Feeder Fund LP"), confirmation of wire payment or such other form of payment as may be acceptable by the Investment Manager representing payment of the subscription price. Subscription orders may be sent to the Investment Manager or its designate by courier, priority post or electronic means.

Subscriptions for Units will be accepted on a monthly basis as of the Valuation Date. A fully completed Subscription Agreement must be received by the Investment Manager or its designate prior to 4:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the Business Day that is three (3) days prior to the applicable Valuation Date otherwise the subscription will be processed as at the next Valuation Date. Canadian Fund Units may only be purchased in U.S. dollars. No subscription will be accepted unless the Investment Manager is satisfied that the subscription is in compliance with applicable securities legislation.

The Investment Manager reserves the right to accept or reject subscriptions in whole or in part in its sole discretion, and any monies received with a rejected order will be refunded forthwith, without interest, other compensation or deduction after the Investment Manager has made such determination.

The Investment Manager will not accept a Subscription Agreement from or register as the owner of any Canadian Fund Unit, an entity that is or would be:

- (a) a "tax shelter" or a "tax shelter investment", or a person an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" or in which a "tax shelter investment" has an interest, within the meaning of the Tax Act;
- (b) a "designated beneficiary" of the Partnership within the meaning of Part XII.2 of the Tax Act if, as a consequence thereof, the Partnership may become liable for tax under Part XII.2 of the Tax Act;

- (c) a “financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the mark-to-market rules, if the Partnership would be deemed to be a “financial institution” under such rules as a result of such subscription or issuance of Canadian Fund Units; or
- (d) a partnership which does not have a prohibition against investment by the foregoing persons.

If at any time the Investment Manager becomes aware that Canadian Fund Units are beneficially owned by one or more persons described above, the Partnership may redeem all or any portion of the Canadian Fund Units on such terms as the Investment Manager deems appropriate in the circumstances. All subscriptions for and/or transfers of Canadian Fund Units will, if required by the Investment Manager, be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the Investment Manager confirming that the investor making the subscription or transfer is not and will not be a “designated beneficiary” of the Partnership.

Subscription funds provided prior to a Valuation Date on which Canadian Fund Units are being subscribed for will be kept in a non-interest bearing account.

All Canadian Fund Units will be issued in book-entry only and not represented by a certificate, unless a Limited Partner demonstrates that it is legally required to hold a certificate in respect of the Canadian Fund Units. The register of Limited Partners of the Partnership (the “Register”) shall be maintained at the office of the Administrator. The Register reflects the name and address of each of the Limited Partners in the Partnership, the amount and date of capital contributions made by each of the Limited Partners and the amount and date of any payment to the Limited Partners representing a return of any part of their subscription amounts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Partnership Agreement, each Limited Partner will have no right to obtain any information with respect to the other partners in the Fund, including the Register, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

20. PURCHASERS’ RIGHTS

The following summaries are subject to the express provisions of the securities legislation in each of the Offering Jurisdictions, and the regulations, rules and policy statements under such legislation, and reference is made to such legislation, regulations, rules and policies for the complete text of such provisions. Investors should consult with their legal advisers to determine whether and the extent to which they may have a right of action or rescission in their province or territory of residence. The rights discussed below are in addition to and without derogation from any other rights or remedies available at law to a purchaser of Canadian Fund Units.

Cooling-off Period

Securities legislation in certain jurisdictions may give a purchaser certain rights of rescission under certain circumstances, against the dealer who sold the Canadian Fund Units to them, but those rights must be exercised within a certain time period (which may be as short as 48 hours) following the purchase of the Canadian Fund Units. There may also be a right to rescind within 60 days under a contractual plan under the legislation of certain jurisdictions.

Statutory Right of Action in the Event of a Misrepresentation

In addition to and without derogation from any right or remedy that an investor of the Canadian Fund Units may have at law, securities legislation in certain of the provinces of Canada provides that an investor has or must be granted rights of rescission or damages, or both, where the Offering Memorandum and any amendment thereto contains a Misrepresentation (defined below). However, such rights must be exercised by the investor within prescribed time limits.

As used herein, “Misrepresentation” means an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make any statement in the Offering Memorandum or any amendment hereto not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made. A “material fact” means a fact that significantly affects, or would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on, the market price or value of the Canadian Fund Units.

The following is a summary of the rights of rescission or damages, or both, available to investors under the securities legislation of Ontario, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Yukon, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan, Nunavut and the Northwest Territories. The provinces of Alberta, British Columbia and Québec do not currently offer any rights of rescission in circumstances where this Offering Memorandum or an amendment hereto contains a Misrepresentation. Investors should refer to the applicable provisions of the securities legislation of their province of residence for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

Rights for Investors in Ontario

2. the Partnership will not be liable if it proves that the investor purchased the Canadian Fund Units with knowledge of the Misrepresentation;

5. the Partnership will not be liable for a Misrepresentation in forward-looking information if the Partnership proves that:
